

practicable, on the party from whom the divorce is sought, or served in such other manner as may have been prescribed on Report of the Committee, and proof of such service shall be adduced before the Committee, who shall report thereon to the Senate.

Upon the adoption of the report of the Committee as to the sufficiency of such service the Bill may be read a second time.

Bill referred to Committee.

113. When the Bill is read a second time, it shall be referred to the Standing Committee on Divorce who shall proceed with all reasonable despatch to hear and to inquire into the allegations set forth in the preamble of the Bill and take evidence touching the same and the right of the petitioner to the relief prayed.

Committee report on Bill.

114. The Committee after such hearing and inquiry shall report thereon to the Senate, and such Report shall be accompanied by the testimony of the witnesses examined and by all papers and instruments put in evidence before the Committee. The minority may bring in a Report stating the grounds upon which they dissent from the Report of the Committee.

When any alteration in the preamble or otherwise in the Bill is recommended, such alteration and the reasons for the same shall be stated in the Report.
