Kla-how-yah

The British Columbia Coast Indian in his canoe

A coloured picture from a painting by John Innes will be reproduced in next week's issue of THE CANADIAN COURIER. This is the second of a series that has been painted specially for this paper. It is strong, graphic, and typically Canadian.

Mr. Innes knows Canadian life thoroughly, especially that in the North and West. His studies of Western subjects have made his name famous among illustrators.

Be sure to get the issue
