UNB responds to the O.J. verdict

By Cynthia Kirkby Brunswickan News

The verdict is in - O.J.'s not guilty and UNB is upset.

The blue room of the Student Union segment of the crowd. Others remained

"It seemed to me that there was quite guilty, a cheer rose from the more vocal interviewed, the percentage of females upset by the verdict was only slightly higher than the percentage of males.

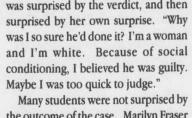

A popular comment made by a bit of disappointment among the students was that they expected some Building was crowded with spectators females whereas the majority of the guys kind of backlash to the case based on as O.J. was acquitted on Wednesday. stood up and clapped," said Karen race or sex. Marie-Eve Pilon found she

The moment he was pronounced not Scott. However, of the students was surprised by the verdict, and then the outcome of the case. Marilyn Fraser "believed he would get an acquittal. The jury must have made up their minds months ago." She explained this by saying that "Johnnie Cochrane is intimidating. If O.J. hadn't had him as a lawyer, he might not have gotten off." She added that she didn't think his own laywers believed he was innocent.

Of the students interviewed, 52% expected the acquittal. However, only 23% were pleased by the verdict, while 46% were upset and 31% did not care about the result. Many students commented that they disagreed with the verdict, but were happy for O.J. anyway.

According to students, the morale of trial) and that justice prevailed.

conditioning, I believed he was guilty. Maybe I was too quick to judge."

the story is primarily that the LAPD has to shape up, followed closely by the opinions that money can buy freedom and that the media has no place in the courtroom. One student each commented that money obscures justice (because of the length of the

Anxious students crowd the blue room to hear O.J.'s fate

photo by Mike Dean

There's no doubt that the Macintosh Performa' is a hot commodity right now. Just come in to your campus reseller before October 22nd - and there are no payments and no interest on the Macintosh Performa 580CD or Macintosh LC 580 until May 1996 and no payments and no interest on the Macintosh Performa 5200CD and 6200CD until February 1996.* To be eligible for this financing, you have to be a student and you have to come into the store. Yet, as they say in ads - including this one - that's not all.

After all, everything you need (and want) comes in one box. That includes twenty software and CD titles, hardware, colour monitor, CD-ROM drive, modem, keyboard, and mouse. Plus, if you buy one on campus before

It'll be a cold day in February offering $100 to $150 rebates when you buy a select Apple printer with your

So get a deal on a Macintosh Performa and open the door - to the Internet, to multimedia, to the power to be your best. Come see us, your participating Authorized Apple Campus Reseller. But do it today. If we've said

One may promptume upor cuarant man captus pun anatum on ne manuson reportum 2000, in Macinto It 801 e February 1906 (humang, esfected in URB) plant (the Vest culd only on Macinto It 1801 e Mac

Canada's Oldest Official Student Publication Established 1867

Editor-in-Chief

Mark Morgan Managing Editor Neil Duxbury

News Editor

We'll know today Entertainment Editor

Michael Edwards(Interim) Sports Editor Mark Savoie

Darkrooms Editor

ho

pa di: th

Mike Dean Distractions Editor

Mary Rogal-Black Technical Co-ordinator

Luck Business Manager Janice McConneil

Advertising Manager Bill Traer

Advertising Staff Michael Edwards Pierre Huard

Typesetters Dawn Moorcraft Joe Fitzpatrick

Proofreader Shelley M. Wells

Marty McCarthy, Sydney Johnson, Cynthia Kirkby, Mike Campbell, Matthew Roherty, MK, Mark Robichaud, Peter J. Cullen, Trish MacLean, Andrew Rosenfeld, Taigue McAvity, Marc Landry, Mark Bray, Charlene Keddy, Robert Fernandez, Bill Jackson, Jonathan

> This issue dedicated to: rubber hoses and tinsel

Beggs and Heather Labrecque

The Brunswickan, in its 129th year of publication, is Canada's oldest official student publication. The Brunswickan is generally published every Friday during the school year by Brunswickan Publishing Inc. with a circulation of 10,000. Membership is open to all University of New Brunswick Fredericton students, but all members of the university community are encouraged to contribute.

The opinions contained in paper are those of the individual writers, and do not necessarily reflect the views of The Brunswickan. The Brunswickan, while being an open forum for the viewpoints and opinions of all UNB students, may refuse any submission that is judged to be racist, sexist, libellous, or containing attacks of a strictly personal nature. The Brunswickan reserves the right to edit for brevity. Letters generally shouldn't exceed 300 words in length and must contain your signature, student number and phone number, or it will Not be printed. All copy submitted must be double spaced, on ONE side of the page only and must be legible. If we can't read it, we won't print it. The Brunswickan now accepts copy on 3.5 inch disk, either Macintosh or MS-Dos format.

Articles printed in The Brunswickan may be freely reprinted provided proper credit is given. The Brunswickan est imprimé avec flair par Acadie Press a Caraquet. The paper is impeccibly delivered by Mark Robichaud. He's been on time-occasionally.

Subscription rates are $27 per year. Second class mail is in effect -#8120 National advertising rates are available from Campus Plus at (416) 362-6468.

The Brunswickan Student Union Building University of New Brunswick P.O. Box 4400 E3B 5A3

Phone: (506) 453-4983 (506) 453-4958 Fax: E-Mail: bruns@unb.ca

WWW Site: http://www.unb.ca/web/bruns