

Loss to Public Life -

At time when opportunism all too common, his life-long adherence to first principles, a salutary influence; in one capacity or another, his life was one of service to fellows - career based on <sup>his</sup> beliefs - constant aim was to further his convictions in order to advance the common good;

Word of sympathy -

feel sure that all members of House will wish, Mr. Speaker, to convey an expression of our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Young and to the other members of the family.

(one daughter, Mrs. Bray; two sons).
