

- Q.106 How many times did she insist you go before the party broke up?
- A.106 I should think twice.
- Q.107 At what times?
- A.107 We had been there quite a while when she first suggested we go.
- Q.108 Was there any indication that that suggestion was conveyed to any of the officers? It was just a conversation between you and Crouch?
- A.108 Yes.
- Q.109 There was no application to any of the officers in the Mess?
- A.109 No.
- Q.110 Why didn't you apply to the officers in the mess and say We have to be in by ten o'clock, we must leave right away even though we are a little late?
- A.110 I think it might have been said.
- Q.111 Would you swear it had been?
- A.111 No.
- Q.112 This question of when you came to leave the Mess, do I understand you correct to say that you got into the car and went direct to Orchard House, as far as you remember?
- A.112 Yes.
- Q.113 Crouch says that you didn't go to Orchard House, you went in the direction of Haxted House some distance. Do you remember any of that part of it.
- A.113 No.
- Q.114 Mr. Corbett and Miss. Crouch both swear that you went towards Haxted House, you wouldn't say that they were wrong?
- A.114 No.
- Q.115 I suggest to you Miss Sedgwick that if you were indefinite where the car went you might be as indefinite concerning whether it was a W.D. car or a civilian car. Are you sure it was a W.D. car or do you just think so?
- A.115 I am sure it was.
- Q.116 Did you see any other W.D. cars?
- A.116 I don't remember seeing any.
- Q.117 You are sure it was a W.D. car yet you are not sure regarding its movements, is that right?
- A.117 Yes.
- Q.118 I am suggesting wherefore that you might not have known what kind of car it was?
- A.118 Private cars don't usually have a driver.
- Q.119 Where did the driver appear from?
- A.119 I couldn't say.
