

THE CANADIAN CLUB, VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B. C., November 7th, 1908.

I beg to advise you that at the Annual Meeting of the Canadian Club, held Tuesday, November 3rd, 1908, the following resolution was proposed and passed:

"That the Canadian Club heartily endorses the movement inaugurated by the Art, Historical and Scientific Association looking to the transfer by the Provincial Government to the City of Vancouver, of the property known as the Court House Square."

Yours truly,

D. Von CRAMER,
Secretary.

STUDIO CLUB.

Vancouver, B. C., September 29th, 1908.

At a meeting of the Vancouver Studio Club, specially convened to consider a circular letter from the Art, Historical and Scientific Association dated July 20th, 1908, calling attention to the desirability of the Provincial Government conveying to the Corporation of the City of Vancouver the land and building of the present Court House for art, historical, scientific, museum and other public purposes, it was unanimously resolved to join in the request of the A. H. & S. A. to memorialize the Government to convey to the City of Vancouver the old Court House and grounds for the purposes set forth.

ROSAMOND RUSSELL, Secretary.
H. ABBOTT, President.
