

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

	PAGE
Fig. 1. Scenes in the early days of sugar making.....	2
" 2. Antiquated systems of boiling still in use in backward sections.....	9
" 3. Sap gatherers making the morning round.....	11
" 4. Through metal pipes the sap flows from the bush to the sugar house.....	12
" 5. A gala day in a sugar bush at Algonquin Park.....	13
" 6. A sugar house in operation in Missisquoi County, Quebec.....	16
" 7. The flow of sap from the tree.....	17
" 8. A cement concrete sugar house in Western Ontario.....	18
" 9. A load of sap arriving at the sugar house on a sixteen hundred tree sugar orchard in Compton County, Quebec.....	18
" 10. A gathering tank discharging its load of sap at the sugar house.....	19
" 11. Types of modern evaporators .....	20
" 12. Types of modern evaporators .....	21
" 13. A modern gathering tank ready to be emptied at the sugar house.....	22
" 14. Sap buckets receiving the run.....	23
" 15. A joy of Spring .....	24
" 16. Types of sap spouts .....	25
" 17. A sap gatherer making his round.....	26
" 18. The hand-sled and milk can used in gathering sap. ....	27
" 19. View of inside of sugar house.....	29
" 20. Skimmer for removing scum from boiling sap.....	29
" 21. Thermometer .....	31
" 22. Saccharometer .....	31
" 23. A case of maple syrup ready for shipment.....	33
" 24. Label authorized by the Maple Sugar and Syrup Co-operative Agricultural Association .....	39
" 25. L'Islet County sugar school boys at work.....	42
" 26. Quebec Government school at Beauceville, Quebec.....	43
" 27. Display of maple syrup competing in 1919.....	44
" 28. Display of maple sugar competing in 1919.....	45