

8. La France—Bright pink; very fragrant.
 9. Madame Abel Chatenay—Carmine rose shaded salmon; very free flowering; fine form.
 10. Madame Ravary—Golden yellow; very free flowering.
 11. Mrs. Anron Ward—Yellow washed with salmon rose; a beautiful rose.
 12. Theresa—Deep orange apricot tinged carmine; fragrant.
- Other popular varieties are Betty, Mildred Grand and Viscountess Folkestone.

Some Hybrid Tea Roses, which give promise of great excellence, selected from varieties planted in 1911, at the Central Experimental Farm.

Red and shades of red:—

1. Laurent Carle—Velvety crimson.
2. Rhea Reid—Cherry red and crimson.

Pinks and shades of pink:—

3. Colonel R. S. Williamson—Light pink almost white.
4. H. Armitage Moore—Rose and silvery pink.
5. Yvonne Vaucherot—Pink and coral white.

Flesh and shades of salmon:—

6. Antoine Rivoire—Rosy flesh tinged yellow.
7. Dorothy Page Roberts—Pink and salmon.
8. Dornroschen—Flesh coloured.
9. Grace Molyneux—Apricot and flesh colour.
10. Margaret Molyneux—Saffron yellow and apricot.
11. Lady Helen Vincent—Salmon and pink.
12. Mrs. William Cooper—Rosy flesh.
13. Queen of Spain—Pale flesh.
14. Souvr. du Président Carnot—Flesh and white.

Yellows:—

15. James Cocy—Yellow to white.
16. Le Progrès—Golden yellow.

Whites and cream shades:—

17. Euilinna Oliden—White, tinted carmine.
18. Marie Mascaraud—White, slightly salmon.

Six of the best and most popular Tea Roses.

1. White Maman Cochet—White, tinged lemon.
2. Maman Cochet—Deep flesh, suffused light rose.
3. Madame Jules Gravereaux—Flesh, shaded yellow.
4. The Bride—White, tinged lemon.
5. Bridesmaid—Bright pink.
6. Souvenir de Pierre Notting—Apricot yellow, shaded orange.

Hardest and Best Climbing Roses—

- Crimson Rambler* (crimson, double).
Dorothy Perkins (soft, light pink).