

---

---

COURT OF ERROR AND APPEAL.

The Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia have no Local Courts of Error and Appeal from the decision of their Supreme Courts. The Appellant must go to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in England.

No difference can therefore be pointed out, the Province of Ontario alone of the three Provinces, having a Court of appeal within its own territory accessible to litigants therein.

---