

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

London, November 13, 1883.—The suppression of the right of public meeting places the government of Ireland in the hands of the Orange faction. Constitutional liberty has ceased to exist, having given place to a shambles alliance between the Gladstone Government and the murderous Orange gangs armed and paid by the landlords.

The people are deeply incensed and at every recurring opportunity take signal vengeance at the polls, but public action and the legal redress of grievances are rendered difficult, if not impossible, and the hope of further remedial legislation has to be postponed till the next Parliament.

We have reached a critical point in the struggle. It is of vital importance that Parnell should be enabled to carry seventy or eighty seats at the general election. Only one obstacle stands in the way—the want of money. The people at home are poor, and American help is absolutely necessary to success.

Parnell leading seventy true men, would wield an enormous moral power. The Irish party would then be an Irish Parliament capable of moulding the political future of Ireland and trying issue with the British Government.

It is believed the prosecution in the O'Donnell trial tends to treat the case as an ordinary one of murder, as nothing of a political nature will be introduced unless rendered necessary by the defence.

A. M. Sullivan, M.P., was taken suddenly ill last night, and his recovery is said to be doubtful. Overwork in the case of O'Donnell is supposed to be the cause.

Healy, M.P., addressed a large meeting at Drogheda yesterday. Referring to the report that the Government intended to introduce a bill extending the franchise, from the benefits of which Ireland would be excluded, declared that Ireland did not obtain an extension of the franchise England would not get it.

Biggar, M.P., speaking at Oldham, stated that Spencer, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, had caused innocent people to be hanged upon notoriously false evidence. He declared the Orangemen were unimportant in numbers, and composed of knaves and dupes. The torchlight procession to which Sir Stafford Northcote was treated, he said, was only organized after those who composed the procession had received half a crown each.

CATHOLIC NOTES.

The Rev. Father Kennedy has returned to Halifax, N. S., from England, after an absence of four years.

The contract has been awarded for the construction of a new church in St. Pierre de Broughton, Que. The cost is to be $10,250.

Father Lewis Martinietti, a missionary, died in the interior of China about two months ago, after having labored in that country for 48 consecutive years, without having a single leave home.

A retreat for young women was opened at the church of four acres of the same estate, in Quebec city, on the 12th inst. Rev. Father Beaulieu, S. J., is the preacher.

The Rev. Father Auclair, Rector of the Basilica, Quebec, preached a sermon on "fast" dances and sliding excursions at night, on the 11th inst.

The inventory of the estate of the late Catholic Archbishop of Edinburgh and St. Andrews has been returned. It shows that he had £98 left after deducting his debts. He gave all his large revenues to the parish poor.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ottawa Separate School Board on the 13th inst., a report was made that the number of children who had attended the schools during the month ending 31st ulto, was 2,123.

His Grace the Archbishop of Quebec celebrated Mass in the Ursuline convent on the 12th inst. After breakfast he made the annual visitation of the institution, when an address was presented to him by the pupils.

Thirty acres of white wheat on the R. C. mission farm yielded 1,200 bushels. Another field of four acres of the same variety yielded 360 bushels, from eight bushels of seed. This beats the world.—Edmonton, N. W. T., Bulletin.

His Lordship the Bishop of St. John's, dedicated a new church at Petersville, Queen's Co., N. B., on the 8th inst., of which the Rev. P. Farrell is the priest in charge. His Lordship also administered the sacrament of Confirmation to fifty persons.

Great preparations are being made to receive His Lordship the Bishop of Ottawa at the regular meeting of the Union St. Joseph in that city, on the 4th prox. He will be accompanied by Very Rev. Father Routhier, V. G., the chaplain of the Society.

News from Quebec city says that His Excellency the Apostolic Commissary having concluded the hearing of evidence in the matter of the Laval University School of Medicine there, he was about to proceed to Montreal to continue his investigation.

The Redemptorist Fathers of St. Anne de Beaupre (Belgian Province) have recently visited East Sherbrooke, Que., and made arrangements for the erection of a church there, the charge of which has been confided to them by the Bishop of Sherbrooke.

ious vows. The Rev. Father Royer, O. M. I., presided.

At the convent of Villa Marie, on the same day, nine ladies made their vows and eleven received the holy habit.

On the 12th inst., over sixty members of the diocesan clergy assembled in the large hall of the Ursuline convent at Three Rivers, for the purpose of presenting their homage and good wishes to the Very Rev. C. O. Caron, V. G., on his paternal feast—that of St. Charles Borromeo. A grand dinner was afterwards given, at which His Lordship Mgr. Lafleche presided.

On the morning of the 8th instant took place the consecration of the new chapel attached to the hospital in the town of Sorel, Que., which was built during the summer to supply a want much felt. The ceremony, which was an imposing one, was presided over by Monsignor Moreau, bishop of St. Hyacinthe, attended by a large body of clergymen, and in presence of an immense gathering of the laity. In the afternoon his Lordship also blessed a new bell for the chapel, which was the gift of the Richelieu Steamboat Company, and officiated with several appropriate hymns, and the ceremonies closed with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Afterwards the "sponsors" for the bell—who included the leading citizens of Sorel and adjacent parts and other friends, partook of a magnificent dinner, at which the Bishop presided.

St. PATRICK'S LITERARY INSTITUTE CONCERT AND READINGS.—Last evening the first of the pleasant social entertainments organized by this Institute took place in their hall, St. Ann street. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance. After the opening remarks by the Chairman, Mr. J. Gallagher, the juvenile singing class recently organized by the Institute gave the chorus of "The Birdie's Ball," followed by the recitation "Little Jim," by Miss Mad Derby.

Songs by Mrs. Vallaran, Misses Hogan, O'Malley, Timmons, and Messrs. Fitzhenry and P. Timmons were well received and heartily encored, as also an instrumental duet on the piano and violin by Masters W. Burke and E. Batterton. Mr. J. P. Sutton gave a comic reading, "The Quaker Meeting," Mr. J. K. Foran recited "The Angel's Promise," and his own composition. This gentleman, by request of the Chairman, closed the entertainment with a comic recitation, and in response to a general encore favored the audience with "Darby McShawn," which set them in roars of laughter.

If we are to judge of the future week by the attendance and success of this one, we may predict a series of instructive and amusing reunions during the coming winter.—Quebec Chronicle, 16th inst.

BRANTFORD LETTER.

On Sunday afternoon at three o'clock a long funeral procession drew up to Saint Basil's Church, headed by two hearses, one wearing black and the other white plumes. The coffins contained the mortal remains of the late Patrick Dunne, and Miss Bessie McQuillan, two sisters, aged 53 and 56 years respectively. The two families lived across the way from each other, and the sight was a sorrowful one to see the families each follow their dead.

Four or five weeks ago Miss McQuillan died of a paralytic stroke, and she followed a few days later by a second stroke. Mrs. Dunne was with her much during her suffering until she herself was laid down with a similar stroke, through which she lived but about a week, as she died at noon on Friday last. Miss McQuillan's health made it unwise to take her to the sad occurrence, and she knew nothing of it till she was called away to join her sister the next morning at seven o'clock. The church was crowded and the streets adjacent were lined with sympathizing friends. As the coffins were brought into the church the choir sang "Veni Spem," and before beginning the service for the dead Father Lennon spoke a few appropriate words in reference to the solemn occasion. He said he was pleased to see so many come to show their sympathy for the deceased, as he knew it was a mark of the virtues of the deceased.

He said that during his residence in the city for the past year and a half he was elated by the life of the two who remain alive before him. The one a mother of a family who had known much care and suffering, which she bore with the Christian patience of a martyr. The other a maiden who had to take all the responsibility of a family, which early fell to her care, and who daily before her labors began was seen attending the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and again after her hard day's work daily visited the House of God, to pray in His divine presence. Of the edifying incidents connected with the death of the two sisters he spoke with much feeling, and asked all to pray for their eternal repose, for, as we were taught that nothing which might be in the least defiled by sin could enter the Holy Presence of God, and as those who were so lately called were surely His friends, but might have some slight fault from which they must be purified by suffering before being admitted to heaven, we could aid them by our prayers. "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins." On the coffins were wreaths and crosses of flowers, the gifts of warm friends and admirers of the virtues of the deceased. Mrs. Dunne leaves a family of four sons and two daughters, the two eldest sons being settled away from the city for some years past. A little over two months ago her husband was buried. The greatest sympathy is felt for both families and there is much sorrowing after the deceased.

Rumors of War.

The London correspondent of a New York paper telegraphs:—The uneasiness about the continuance of peace has passed into open menaces of war. The tone of the German journals has become absolutely savage. The Kolnisch Zeitung shouts out that since a bloody struggle is inevitable the sooner it takes place the better, and another newspaper declares that any insults in Spain to the Crown Prince under the French investigation would polarize the ideas of war. At the same time military newspapers inform Italy that she will have to take the offensive in defence of her German ally, and lecture her on the backward state of her artillery.

C. M. B. A. NOTES.

It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mr. M. O'Flaherty, one of the charter members and trustees of Branch No. 4, London. His death occurred on Sunday, 18th inst., after a lingering illness of several months. Our late brother was highly respected by all classes of our citizens. In the way of charity, his purse was ever ready, and when a call was made upon it, he always liberally responded. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved widow and family in their severe affliction, and express our sincere regret at the loss of so valuable and respected a member of society, cut off, as it were, in the very prime of life, he being only 43 years of age.

At a special meeting of Branch No. 4, C. M. B. A., London, held on Monday, November 19th, the following resolutions were adopted:—Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our late brother, Matthias O'Flaherty, who departed this life November 18th, 1883, at the age of 43 years:—Resolved—That this Branch, in the death of the deceased brother, has lost a most esteemed and true charter-member and officer; society a social and warm-hearted friend, and his family a devoted and affectionate husband and father.

Resolved—That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family in this their hour of affliction. Resolved—That as far as possible the members of this Branch attend the funeral of the deceased brother, to be held on Tuesday, 20th inst., at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the deceased, and published in our official organ, the CATHOLIC RECORD, the London Advertiser and Free Press.

The London Free Press says: "Mr. S. B. Brown, of this city, Grand Recorder of the C. M. B. A. for Canada, has availed himself of every opportunity in making known the objects and workings of the society, and his labors have been crowned with a success even beyond his anticipations. The C. M. B. A. is destined to be the largest and most influential Catholic association in Canada."

Recording Secretaries are requested to send the list of officers of their respective Branches to the Grand Recorder as soon as possible after the next election; also send the name of the representative chosen for next general council convention.

A. C. M. B. A. Branch will be organized at Petrolia in a few days; the necessary number of medical certificates have been approved. Mr. P. H. McCall interested himself in working up the required number.

Brother J. E. Lawrence, of Branch 10, St. Catharines, is a grand officer, and was twice elected president of his Branch. He has proved himself an able C. M. B. A. worker, as Branch 10 will shortly be the largest Branch in Canada, due, no doubt, to the energy of Mr. Lawrence and his able co-workers.

Special Deputy Master H. W. Deane visited Montreal last week, and on Tuesday evening, the 13th inst., organized St. Patrick's Branch No. 26, with 26 charter members.

A deputation of six gentlemen waited on Mr. M. O'Flaherty, and received the Deputy and take him in charge, to be cared for and entertained while there with that genuine hospitality and warm-heartedness characteristic of its people.

This new branch is composed of leading men of the parish, members who have at heart the welfare of the community. The office in other societies and are thus well versed in rules of order and society meetings, and appear to be possessed of mental qualities and general intelligence above the average. The branch proceedings, conducted at the initiatory meeting on the 10th inst., has been most successful. The members of the branch are carried through with the dignity and precision of veterans; a matter exceedingly gratifying to the Deputy, and highly creditable to these officers; such thoroughness at the start augurs well for its future success. A very large membership is expected as soon as its objects and aims are better known, and the lively interest exhibited by all its members will be the means undoubtedly of causing the formation of other branches in neighboring parishes.

The first officers are the following: President—Timothy J. Finn Vice-Pres.—John Ray, James O'Brien Recording Secretary—Thos. F. McGrail. Fin. Sec.—James J. Kane Ast. Sec.—Timothy P. Tansey Treasurer—George Murphy Marshal—Henry J. Ward Justice—Frank Green Trustees for one year: C. C. Lawlor, T. W. Nicholson and Bernard Cunningham. Trustees for two years, James Meek; one vacancy to be filled at the next meeting.

Medical Examiner—Thomas Ambrose, M. D., and a member of the Branch. This is the first Branch our special Deputy has organized, but he intends us will organize several more in the near future, as there is a great field for C. M. B. A. work in the neighborhood of Montreal. S. R. Brown, Grand Secy. C. M. B. A.

Dear Sir and Brother,—How pleasing it must be to you to see such an interest taken by the brethren in our noble society. The many letters that have of late appeared in the columns of our official organ, the CATHOLIC RECORD, must be read with interest by all C. M. B. A. members, though not intended for their special benefit, but chiefly for the propagation of the society of which they who have from time to time written know the value of a membership in the C. M. B. A. The many words of encouragement coming from priests, brother members, tend to unite us more closely. With us there is no discord—all is harmony. What is the good of our life for the many—and this is known and realized by all of us, social intercourse. Positions, when vacant, are filled by members if out of employment.

May the time soon come when our society will be established in Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island. It has already found its way into Quebec.

The greatest amount of good yet attained to the spreading of our society has been through the columns of the CATHOLIC RECORD a journal we cannot speak too highly of, and I think that every member would glorize in the idea of a war. At the same time military newspapers inform Italy that she will have to take the offensive in defence of her German ally, and lecture her on the backward state of her artillery.

BRACKVILLE LETTER.

The annual concert of the children under the charge of the Sisters of the "Congregation de Notre Dame" came off on Thursday evening and was a grand success. The concert was held in the Opera House under the patronage of the Catholic Literary Association. After the overture played with expression by Misses McGrovy, Braniff, Murray, Murphy, and Morris, and the "Welcome" chorus by the pupils, the prologue was spoken by Miss Katie Bradley. This was followed by a dialogue, "The Precious Pimple," in which Miss Annie Gillieran as "June" and Miss Katie Murray as "Mrs. Gable" took prominent parts. A grand march, from Luchesi, by Misses Kelley, Murray, Shannon and O'Donohoe, was played in very good taste.

"The Dolls," by the little ones, scarcely bigger than dolls themselves, fairly "brought down the house" with merited applause. "The Frost King and the Summer Queen," in which Miss Bourke as the "Summer Queen" and Miss Annie Bradley as the "Frost King," took the principal parts, was well received. "The Charge of the Hussars," played by the Misses Murray, Murphy, Gallagher, Crowley and Braniff, showed the command those young ladies possess over the piano and organ.

"The Love of a Bonnet," in which Miss Mary Bradley as the Irish maid, provoked much laughter. Miss Whelan's desire for that "Love of a Bonnet" was skillfully shown, and Miss Lizzie Delaney as "Aunt Hopkins" displayed considerable talent, was all that could be looked for. Miss L. Souville & Co. Gentlemen—Yours of last week to hand, and in reply to your enquiry I have much pleasure in stating that from the first time of using the sphygmometer and the medicine I have improved very much. The bronchitis has entirely left me. I sleep well and have a good appetite. I must also add, that coming to you as I did as a last resort, the cure effected has been wonderful.

Gratefully yours, MRS. E. MASON, Nov. 10, 1883. JARVIS, Ont. Call personally at the Institute and be examined, if possibly, if not write for list of questions and copy of INTERNATIONAL NEWS published monthly at International Throat and Lung Institute, 173 Church St., Toronto, or 13 Philip square, Montreal, P. Q.

Canada Business College CHATHAM, ONT. What the three Bank Managers of Chatham think of our Institution.

D. McLACHLAN, Esq., Dear Sir,—I have no hesitation in recommending your College to young men wishing to obtain a business education, which your institution enables them to do in a very short time, and at moderate cost. I have looked carefully into your system of teaching, and consider it all that could be desired. I was much pleased by the progress made by my son while at your College. Yours truly, W. S. HILLIARD, Manager, Federal Bank, Chatham, Ont.

D. McLACHLAN, Esq., Dear Sir,—I have much pleasure in adding my testimony to the desirability of having in our midst an institution so efficiently conducted as your College. Those of your pupils whom I have met speak in the highest terms of the course of study and of the information acquired under instruction. Wishing you continued success, I am, yours very faithfully, W. S. HILLIARD, Manager, Merchants' Bank of Canada, Chatham, Ont.

D. McLACHLAN, Esq., Dear Sir,—With pleasure I speak in favor of your course for young men; the clerk I secured from you succeeding, and mastering in three months a post he would otherwise have taken a much longer time to have understood. On this account, and having looked into your system and compared the Banking Department, I can recommend it to those contemplating this or any similar pursuit. Yours very truly, FREDERICK S. JARVIS, Manager, Bank of Montreal, Chatham, Ont.

LOCAL NOTICES. Mrs. Elizabeth Mason—Dr. M. Souville & Co. Gentlemen—Yours of last week to hand, and in reply to your enquiry I have much pleasure in stating that from the first time of using the sphygmometer and the medicine I have improved very much. The bronchitis has entirely left me. I sleep well and have a good appetite. I must also add, that coming to you as I did as a last resort, the cure effected has been wonderful.

Gratefully yours, MRS. E. MASON, Nov. 10, 1883. JARVIS, Ont. Call personally at the Institute and be examined, if possibly, if not write for list of questions and copy of INTERNATIONAL NEWS published monthly at International Throat and Lung Institute, 173 Church St., Toronto, or 13 Philip square, Montreal, P. Come all who wish white teeth and pearl, To set off lips of cherry. A fragrant breath for the boy and girl Who breathe "Fragrant." KOBESSA'S GUMS AND PASTES. THE CANADA BUSINESS COLLEGE, which is advertised in the columns of the RECORD, is meeting with excellent success. The Principal, Mr. McLaughlin, has secured a man in Canada, and the College course is so sturdy that no surface knowledge avails in the severe test for graduation. We strongly recommend the Chatham Business College to our Catholic young men who are desirous of obtaining a first-class business education.
