

RAISE SECOND CONTINGENT

Patriotic Association Decide to Ask For More Newfoundland Volunteers For the Front

A meeting of the Reserve Force Committee, appointed at the last meeting of the Patriotic Association, took place at the Board of Trade Rooms last evening.

Those present were Sir Joseph Outerbridge, Chairman; Dr. V. P. Burke, Secretary, and W. J. Higgins, M.H.A., Asst. Secretary. Others present were J. A. Clift, K.C., W. H. Rennie, Lt.-Col. Rendell (C.L.B.), Lt.-Col. Conroy (C.C.C.), Capt. McKay (Highlanders), Major Hutchings (Guards), Capt. Montgomerie and Lieut. E. Ayre.

Begin at Once.

A committee consisting of Lt.-Col. Conroy, J. A. Clift, Capt. Montgomerie the chairman and secretary, were appointed to draft a proclamation.

Volunteers will be enlisted at St. John's and the various outposts, and a recruiting office, with Capt. Montgomerie in charge, assisted by an officer from each of the four brigades and a number of members of the Rifle Club will be opened at a date to be announced later.

All applicants will be drafted by the Reserve Committee to one of three units, which shall be under the direction of the city brigades, which will undertake their preliminary training in conjunction with the members of the Rifle Association.

Sent if Called For.

The object is to prepare men if called upon, so that a second contingent is needed from Newfoundland they will be ready.

We hope every young man in the city and outposts will come forward. They may not be needed at the front but if they are there will be no delay in sending them forward.

Had these suggestions of Lord Roberts a few years ago been acted upon Great Britain would have been better prepared at the outbreak of war than she was. Every unmarried young man between the ages of 18 and 35 years should rally round the old flag.

Do our Share.

The Mother Country has done wonders in men and money; Newfoundland has done well, but there is need for even greater efforts.

We are into this fight and we must win. Defeat is not thought of. If every young man in the Colony would be a great impetus to our friends abroad.

There is now another opportunity to show our loyalty. Let us all get busy. The eyes of the enemy and neutrals as well are on us let us show a bold and united front.

Canada's Example.

Canada is bubbling over with enthusiasm. The men are almost fighting amongst themselves in their eagerness to enlist.

In Newfoundland less loyal than Canada. We think not, for we have been called the most loyal Colony of the Crown.

Mothers do not keep back your boys, rather encourage them to go forward. Think of the losses of the poor Belgians. They are our allies. They need our help let us give it to them.

Many could contribute more than we have after all money is not everything.

We should all take up this movement in a whole-hearted manner. Our support is needed let us give it freely and ungrudgingly.

D. U. CABLE STAFF TO LEAVE HR. GRACE

Will be Transferred to the Western Union Offices At Bay Roberts

The Direct United States cable staff will shortly leave Hr. Grace and go to Bay Roberts and do work at the Western Union Office, says the Bay Roberts Guardian.

The members of the staff on Thursday night gave a partridge supper at Gordon Lodge at which a number of their friends of the town were invited. A very enjoyable time was spent and speeches were made by those present.

Regrets were expressed at the departure from the town of the Cable Staff, and the operators referred to the kind words said of them by their friends and hoped that their stay in this town had been so pleasant that its memory would be a lasting one.

Fish Plentiful

Several fishermen were on the grounds yesterday, and during the afternoon and early this morning, large quantities of fish were for sale in the city.

JOLLY TIME AT CHANNEL

Two Successful Concerts Held in Aid of Patriotic Fund

A concert under the auspices of the Ladies' Patriotic Committee, was given in the Parish Hall on Thursday and Friday evenings last, the net proceeds of which, amounting to a substantial sum, were devoted to the objects for which the Committee was formed, viz: Patriotic Purposes.

A most interesting programme had been prepared, which was presented to a crowded house, and carried through in a highly satisfactory manner. A most amusing incident occurred on Thursday night during the rendition of the Army marching chorus, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," and one which the audience thoroughly enjoyed, though it was no joke for the performers, and was perhaps, on the whole, the sole unrehearsed item in the bill.

Unrehearsed.

Either German spies had been at work sowing mines beforehand or their emissaries had been tampering with the stage mechanism, for during the march to the chorus of Tipperary the centre sections of the stage collapsed, and those who were standing on that particular portion went below. Notwithstanding the surprise, all hands soon got on deck, or at least on as much of it as was left standing, and the work of rescue commenced. Not being able to restore the stage again, the next best thing was done, and the "Tipperaries" took it completely down.

Improved the Delay.

Advantage was taken of the momentary stay of proceedings to serve tea to the audience, during which time first aid to the wounded was rendered; injuries being more to the mind than to the body, which gave an admirable opportunity to the swains to administer consolation to the startled but by no means daunted, fair ones. So soon as matters were straightened out, the Company formed up again, and the call "Are we down-hearted?" was responded to by a thunderous NO! And we weren't, and reached Tipperary without further accident.

At the conclusion of the programme a Tableau representing the British Empire was set, which pleased and delighted the audience.

Deserve Praise.

Great praise is due all the ladies who assisted in the arrangements, especially Miss E. M. Edgar to whose initiative most of the success of the whole affair was due. The gentlemen as well must not be forgotten. They rendered valuable assistance which contributed much toward the desired end. Lastly, to the general public, who so liberally patronized both nights the thanks of the company are given.

Repetition on Friday night was held to be even a greater success than was made Thursday; the singers being repeatedly encored, and the Tipperary corps had to respond three times, and even then the audience, like the late Mr. Oliver Twist, wanted more.

The Program.

The programme was as follows: Instrumental, Miss Crane; Chorus, Tenth Tonight, Company; Solo Songs my mother used to sing, Mrs. Mosdell; Recitation, The Revenger, Miss A. Taylor; Solo, Strolling, Miss Read; Reading, Our bit of the Thin Red Line, Miss Davis, Song, The Jolly Britons, Mr. James; Recitation, The Charge of the Light Brigade, Mr. Gushue; Song, Hearts of Oak, Capt. C. Taylor; Solo, Sweet Eileen Asthore, Mrs. Rolis; Recitation, The Day, Miss L. Taylor; Part Song, Evening Bells, Company; Recitation, The Flag, Miss M. Keating; Marching Song, It's a long way to Tipperary, Company; Duet, Like to Spoon With Me? Mrs. Rolis, Miss Pike; Song, Wireless Telegraphy, Miss S. Pike; Action song, Annie Laurie, Miss C. Keating, Mrs. Rolis, Mrs. Russ; Song, McCarthy, Mr. Phippard; Song, England's Glory, Mr. James.

Tableau The British Empire. Characters—Britannia, Miss Smart; Scotia, Miss Clement; Hibernia, Miss Crane; Terra Nova, Miss Grant; Canada, Miss Whitford; Australasia, Miss L. Pike; The Navy, Mr. F. Pike; The Army, Mr. James; Overseas Troopers, Messrs. Read and Phippard.

Man Wanted on Charge Preferred 10 Years Ago is now 70 Years of Age

Toronto, October 26.—After a chase which has extended over the whole North American continent and part of South America, for the past fifteen years, Dr. R. C. Flower, alias Oxford, alias Montgomery has been arrested here.

Flower was held on an indictment returned against him in the fall of 1899 in New York city. He is alleged to have swindled New Yorkers and others out of $1,000,000 by means of a mine which was not even a prospect.

Flower, is now nearly seventy years of age, and his health is such that he is now compelled to use drugs to keep up his apparent vigor and nerve.

Flower's career is in keeping with some of the wildest stories of frenzied finance.

FALSE ALARM "NIOBE" SAFE

No Truth in Reports of Disaster to the Canadian Warship

Mr. R. G. Reid had the following message from Robinson's Head yesterday:—

"They are picking up wreckage at Bank Head with 'Niobe' marked on a door. The peole at Heatherthon heard guns, and explosions two or three times on Saturday night. It was pieces of doors. They also say they heard a ship blow on Saturday night."

Further Particulars.

Mr. Reid at once communicated with the Premier, and directed the Co.'s agent at Robinson's Head to make further enquiries, and received this reply:—

"It was William Young who picked up the boards on yesterday at Middle Bank, and James Barry picked up some this morning at Fischells. They saw a good many pieces."

Niobe's Name.

The postal operator at Robinson's sent the following to Sertg. Stott:—

"A man here from Bank Head says he saw wreckage and described it as two pieces of panel partition 8 by 5, painted white on one side. The reverse was black with electric wire running along it, and one board 7 by 1 painted white, with the letters Niobe painted across in black."

The Niobe was in that vicinity on Saturday, but the articles picked up were no doubt thrown overboard, as early this morning a message was received that the Niobe was safe.

Mr. Huskins Sings "Mary of Argyle"

The Nickel theatre was thronged last evening, as great interest was centered in the war slides, the elaborate two- reel feature picture "Romance and Duty," and Mr. Huskins' singing of "Bonnie Mary of Argyle." The pictures were unquestionably of the highest quality and everyone was delighted with them. The war slides were particularly good and were favorably commented on. "Romance and Duty" is a charming drama. The scenes are beautiful and the acting perfect.

The other pictures were in keeping with it.

Mr. Huskins made another big hit in his singing of Mary of Argyle. It was pronounced by many to be the best rendition of this popular old Scotch love ballad ever heard in the City. The applause was deafening and proved that the audience was pleased with Mr. Huskins by his wonderful voice and pleasing disposition has made many friends in St. John's.

Everyone is charmed with his work, and it is correct to say that no previous soloist has made such a favorable impression on the music lovers of the city.

This evening the programme will be repeated and we strongly advise all our readers to attend.
