FLU IS STILL

Hamilton, Dec. 2.—The Board of Health and Medical men held a meeting Saturday to further consider the influenza epidemic and take steps for the ching it. A deputation of merchants and manufacturers waited upon the board and asked that the on the board and asked that the order closing stores and offices be mo der closing stores and offices be modified. The merchants contended that all the stores were permitted to be sopen from 10 in the morning till 7 m the evening, instead of closing at 4 p.m., there would be less crewding, both in the stores and street ears. The board, after hearing their arguments, decided not to change the hours, the members stating that as the result of the order there were as the result of the order there were fewer people on the streets Saturday night, and that it was evidently having the effect they hoped for. It was stated that 450 new cases had been reported and no deaths from this reported, and no deaths from this cause Saturday night. The doctors state that while there are more cases than usual, this is accounted for by than usual, this is accounted for by the fact that many cases in the incip-ient stages are being reported, and that through medical attention these are being held in check, and that people will report all such cases the death rate can be materially re-

STICKING TO FACTS 'An agent approaching a house met a little boy at the gate and asked: "Is your mother home?" "Yes, sir," said the boy politely.

The agent walked across the long lawn and, after rapping, returned to the youth, saying:
"I thought you said your mother "Yes, sir, she is," replied the boy.
"But I have rapped several times without receiving an answer."

"That may be, sir." said the boy;
