—In the rush of getting out last week's issue the local adv. of the Athens Planning Mill contained a ridiculous error. It was made to say that flour was $2.45, but which should have read $1.45.

—Rev. T. E. Burke, of Lyn, is announced to take an active part in the program for the fifth annual convention of the Epworth League of the Montreal Conference to be held at Cornwall on the 28th and 29th of this month.

—Mr. C. J. O'Connor and family, of Long Point, accompanied by Mr. McMeekan, of Stratford, a fellow student of Fergus O'Connor who has been taking a course at the Normal School, Ottawa, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stevens on Sunday.

—Christmas day was quietly celebrated by our residents and their visitors. Beyond the annual entertainment in the Methodist church in the evening nothing else was on the calendar. The skating was none too good but an opportunity was afforded, and taken advantage of, to have a game of hockey on the ice in the rear of Mr. A. E. McLean's residence.

—On Friday evening last Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnston gave their annual 6 o'clock dinner to about twenty of their friends and acquaintances. After partaking of the delicious viands, which were served in courses, a number of vocal and instrumental selections were given and a social chat indulged in. The dinner was repeated to about the same number of younger people on Saturday evening. Both dinners broke up about nine, the guests all voting Mr. and Mrs. Johnston a most genial and affable host and hostess.

—Song Service.—A special song service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening last. The choir was composed by the Sabbath school scholars who gave several selections during the service. A feature of the evening was a beautifully rendered solo by Mrs. W. A. Lewis, entitled, "Plains of Peace." Rev. Mr. Frizzell occupied the pulpit and preached a very eloquent sermon from Matt. 2: 2, "We have seen His star in the east and are come to worship Him," setting forth how the rising of the Star of Bethlehem marked a new era in the history of the civilized world. The service was largely attended.

—Miss Byers spent Xmas with friends in Morton.

—H. H. ARNOLD has a number of Ladies' Jackets, now, stylish garments, that will be sold at a great sacrifice. Come and get your choice early. They will not last long at the price. 1p

—Miss Berry will give an excellent entertainment with her humorous selections. She is an elocutionist of a high order. Come one, come all, if you want to have a good laugh—Jan. 6th, 1902.

—D. FISHER has secured the services of a first class painter, and parties wishing their carriages repaired and repainted should bring them in at once to avoid delays in the spring when the rush of work is on.

—To show the high appreciation for Miss M. E. Stone's efforts for the advancement of the different departments of church work, the Epworth League made her the recipient of a purse of money and an address, and her co-workers in the W.C.T.U. also read an address and presented her with a set of solid silver teaspoons, previous to her marriage, which took place on Christmas morning.

—XMAS TREE AND ENTERTAINMENT.—The annual Xmas tree and entertainment in connection with the Methodist church, Athens, was held on Christmas night in the church. The entertainment was varied and interesting throughout. Mr. D. Fisher, as superintendent of the Sabbath school, made an acceptable chairman. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were very satisfactory, showing that the school was in a most flourishing condition. Master Blake Bullis opened the exercises by rendering a "court-cous" recitation with good effect, and was followed by Miss Bella Earle, with a recitation that took well with her auditors. A class of well-trained girls rendered a sweet song, after which Master Lloyd Wilson gave a short recitation. "The Rainbow," 7 girls was a well-gotten up recitation, and was rendered with good effect. A recitation of a "mercantile" character was forcibly displayed by those who took part. Miss Ethel Slack sang a pretty song, entitled, "Reminiscences," a clever composition by Mrs. (Dr.) Lillie, was sung very sweetly (and with much skill. The "Ten Virgins" proved to be the best item on the program and was so touchingly given that the audience followed each movement with wrapt attention. Mr. Joseph Thompson, on invitation of the chairman, gave a short and practical address, and was followed by a recitation, "The Missionary Clock." Rev. W. E. Reynolds, in a happy speech, closed the program. The well laden tree was relieved of its burden which was distributed to those present. The proceeds totalled $49.

—Mr. Wood, of Michigan, was a visitor in town this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones, of Falls, visited friends here last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nash several days the guests of Lyn last week.

—Mr. L. A. Brown, of Falls, was the guest of A. R. on Xmas day.

—Miss Plena Moore, of Falls, spent a few days at Mr. Wiltse's, last week.

—A hockey match is announced to take place this evening. (See between Athens and Newboro.

—D. W. Hudson and wife, cotr, were the guests of Mr. and T. S. Kendrick on Christmas.

—Miss Aggie Knapp, after with relatives here, returned home at Plum Hollow on Monday.

Phil Wiltse and A. Hanna. The officers will be installed at the next regular meeting on Jan. 31st.

—HOCKEY.—A matched game of hockey was run off at the People's Rink here on Monday evening last between the Lyn team and the Athens puck-chasers. The Athens boys early in the game displayed their superiority over their opponents, both in play and combination, and kept the puck well down towards the Lyn goal during the greater part of the game. In the first half Athens succeeded in scoring 2 goals while Lyn scored but one. In the second half Lyn assumed the defensive but failed to prevent the puck from passing their goal stakes 4 times, making the score 6 to 1 in favor of Athens. Mr. Kinney, of Brockville, acted as referee and gave every satisfaction. Attendance, about 200.

VARICOCELE & STRICTURE

No other disease is so prevalent among men as Varicocele. As it interferes with the nutrition of the sexual organs it produces emiaison, loss of semen through the urine, decay of the organs, pains in the loins, aching in the back, nervousness, despondency, bashfulness, palpitation of the heart, constipation, and a combination of these results in complete loss of manhood. Thousands of young men of middle age are troubled with Stricture. If you have reason to believe you are afflicted with it, don't neglect it. It will ruin you. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing it. Our New Method Treatment dissolves the stricture tissue hence it disappears and can never return. W. cure Varicocele and Stricture without operation or loss of time. The treatment may be taken at home privately. Send for our Free Illustrated Book on Varicocele, Stricture and Gleet. We guarantee to Cure or No Pay.

Kidneys & Bladder

All sexual complaints affect these organs, hence the kidneys are a great source of disease. Have you aching or weakness over the small of the back, tendency to urinate frequently, deposit in urine, coldness of hands or feet, a drowsy feeling in the morning. Don't neglect your kidneys. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure any disease of these organs or no pay.

No Names Used Without Written Consent.

O. W. Rowe, of Jackson, Mich., says:—I had varicocele in the secondary stage and two strictures of 5 years standing. I was operated on twice, undergoing great suffering, but only got temporary relief. I was finally advised to try the New Method Treatment of Drs. K. & K. The enlarged veins disappeared in six weeks, the stricture tissue was removed in eight weeks and my sexual energy and vitality returned so I was a man in every respect. I recommended you doctors with my whole heart.

CURES GUARANTEED. NO CURE NO PAY.

We treat and cure Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, Varicocele, Stricture, Syphilis, Gleet, Weak Parts, Gonorrhea and Unnatural Discharges. Consultation Free. Books Free. Write for Question List for Home Treatment.
