Yet the municipalities spent thousands of dollars to fight smallpox and very little to combat the ravages of pulmonary disease.

Of the 80 inmates of the prisons who are classed as insane, idiotic and imbecile, not more than 10 per cent are really insane. The parties who make declarations to the contrary "know quite well," the Inspector remarks, "that they are making false affidavits, and I have had to threaten them with perjury."

SERVICES CLOSED

The revival services that have been in progress in the Methodist church for the past three weeks closed on Sunday last. Three services were held on that day and each was attended by a large congregation. At the evening service chairs had to be brought into the large auditorium. Miss Morton conducted all three services, and her earnest, eloquent discourses deeply impressed her hearers. In the evening a large number gave in their names as probationers for membership in the church.

Miss Morton possesses, in a high degree, education, culture, refinement, and these, wedded to such a lofty motive as evangelization, secure for her the close, interested attention of all classes. Her able, carefully prepared sermons, enunciating clear views of the worthy aims and objects of this life and of man's proper relationship to the author of his being, the depth of her sympathies, the spirit of zeal and earnestness always manifest, will long remain a pleasant memory with all who were privileged to attend these meetings.

A GOLDEN WEDDING

George Nash was born in Elizabethtown on the 14th of June, 1828; Elizabeth Blancher was born in Athens on Sept. 1, 1834; and on the 23rd of February, 1884, these twain were united in marriage by the Rev. William Chapman, a Methodist minister at Greenbush. Monday last was therefore the golden anniversary their wedded life, and their children and friends decided that it should be duly celebrated. All their children were present, viz.: Mrs. Eck Billings, Brookville, Mrs. Slack, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mr. Clifford Nash, Athens. As well as the Athens friends, there were relatives present from Michigan, Brookville, Addison, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash are both in the enjoyment of good health and they received and entertained very pleasantly their numerous guests. During the evening a delegation of the citizens of Athens presented the following address—

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Nash,—

It gives us unfeigned pleasure to be afforded the opportunity of testifying to your esteem for you, and to bear witness to the high opinion in which you are held by one and all who have the pleasure of your acquaintance and beautiful Christian companionship, which it has been our privilege to enjoy during the past forty years. Your upright dealings and wealth of sympathy for your fellow citizens have made for you a reputation and character which has grasped our affections and produced a fountain of friendship which shall ever flow so long as life shall last.

As a loving father and mother you are to be congratulated that in your old age, you have at your call and by your side a fine Christian family who are ever ready to do something to soothe and smoothen your declining years.

It is true that few are permitted to enjoy the sweet companionship of husband and wife for fifty years, but God in his mercy has seen fit to bestow this crown of happiness upon your heads.

And now, in our humble way, as friends, citizens and neighbors, allow us to present you with this purse of gold as a slight memento of our respect and esteem, hoping both you and Mrs. Nash may be spared to live long to enjoy the companionship of your old age and your dear family.

Mr. Nash acknowledged in suitable terms the honor conferred, and gave a few reminiscences of the past, from which we make the following notes.

Of the 42 present at their wedding 9 only are now living.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash first lived at Mott's Mills in Kitley, where they followed farming, then moved to Athens, into the house they now occupy 43 years ago. There is now only one person (Mrs. Addison) in the village who was married and living here when they arrived. Then the village consisted of only 43 houses, fields of grain occupying much of the present site. The model school was being completed in that year.

During the evening addresses were delivered by Messrs. D. Fisher, I. C. Alguire, S. A. Taplin, B. Blancher, O. Arnold and Rev. W. E. Reynolds, all expressing high esteem and good wishes for the continued health and happiness of their aged friends.

A broadcloth frock coat and satin vest that Mr. Nash had donned on his wedding day, fifty years ago, were produced and an attempt made to put them on the groom of the golden wedding; but it was found that he had developed physically as well as mentally, and they were returned to the wardrobe to await the diamond anniversary.

Among the congratulatory letters received was one from Mrs. (Rev.) S. Sheldon, of Cornwall, which is particularly esteemed.

We append the following acknowledgment from Mr. Nash—

"I wish to thank Messrs. Fisher, Alguire and Taplin for their presence on this occasion, and all others whose names appeared on the flattering address which was presented to my wife and self. This we see that we need not live with such cold heartless souls in us that there is no love for others. It is pleasing to know that there can be sunshine in this life, preparatory to the brightness and joy of the future."

The Reporter has always counted Mr. and Mrs. Nash among our most worthy citizens, and we trust that a continuance of health and happiness may be theirs.

Now She is Completely Cured--Fats Any Kind of Food--Has No Pain and Her Digestion is Perfect --Is Well and Strong and Looks Like a Different Person.

MISS E. J. JAMES.

For over four years I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion. For months at a time I was forced to live on a light milk diet, and I was a mere skeleton. My friends told me I was going into consumption, I was so thin. I tried all kinds of medicines recommended for dyspepsia, but got no relief. I was finally induced to try Powley's Liquefied Ozone, and from the first I began to feel relief. I continued taking it until I had used two large bottles, and I am happy to say I am completely cured. I can now eat any kind of food and I have no distress or pain in my stomach, and my digestion is perfect. I am well and strong and look like a different person, and I know it is due to your wonderful Ozone. I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from indigestion, and I know it will cure. I believe it to be the best remedy known for dyspepsia.
