Local Happenings

The Municipal Council meets at Kentville on Tuesday of next week.

One of the daintiest and prettiest calendars we have so far seen is being presented by Mr. A. M. Wheaton.

The public schools reopened on Monday. The other educational institutions resumed on Wednesday.

The boys have been turning out to practice this week and it looks like a better brand of hockey than ever.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church will be held on Wednesday evening of next week.

A number of bills have been sent out from the office of THE ACADIAN recently. These are not intended as keepsakes but for payment.

The friends of Professor and Mrs. Haley will meet to hear of the recent death at Norwich, Conn., of Mr. Arthur B. Wilcox, an only brother of Mrs. Haley.

The death of Mr. James MacLennan, an aged and respected resident of Steam Mill Village, occurred at his home at that place on Saturday last. He was 74 years of age.

Blankets for school tax accounts, neatly printed with the name of the section and the secretary of trustees, may be had at this office. Order by phone or letter.

Mr. Black has arranged for an especially good feature at the Opera House next Monday evening, when 'The Patriot of France, or The Odeon,' a splendid production, will be presented. There will be five acts and 350 scenes.

In recognition of her faithful services, Miss Claire MacDonald, the efficient organist of the Presbyterian choir, was presented with a gold piece by choir members and congregation, also a gift from Mr. D. Chisholm—Hantsport Review.

LOST—A bunch of keys. Please return to this office for reward.

The United Mission Study Class will meet in the Baptist church on Monday, Jan. 11th, at 7:30 o'clock. The Presbyterian ladies have charge of the program for that evening and we may expect a most interesting one. All are cordially invited to attend.

Will the party who happened to carry away from the counter of Mr. Strong, grocer, Wolfville, about Wednesday evening, Dec. 30th, a small parcel of overboots, addressed, carry return the same to the store or to the party addressed.

GEORGE RITCHIE, Clerk.

On Tuesday evening of next week Mr. P. C. Shortt, the world famous pianist of the piano and characteristic violinist, assisted by readers and vocalists from Acadia Seminary, will give a recital in College Hall, under the auspices of the Acadia Athlone Society. The proceeds will be for the Belgian Relief Fund.

As very few members of the P. R. vate Skating Club had spoken for tickets it was impossible for the rink managers to arrange for the first skate on Jan. 7th as proposed in last week's paper, or for a series of ten evenings. They will therefore hold Thursday evenings open to anyone wishing to arrange for skating parties. For particulars apply to the managers.

Miss Eliza J. Yull, M. A., formerly of Great Village and for some years a valued member of the teaching staff of the Wolfville public school, who for some years has been an efficient principal of one of the schools in Penitentiary, B. C., at the first of the new year became teacher of English in one of the high schools in Chilliwack, B. C. This town is on the C. P. R. and is connected by electric railway with Vancouver. It is one of the best growing towns in British Columbia.

Now is the time to buy Ladies' Coats and Skirts, 20 per cent. discount at J. D. CHAMBERS.

Dr. Spidle's sermons in the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening were most interesting and spiritually helpful, and were followed by the close attention of large congregations. His morning subject was 'The Twofold Basis of Christian Faith,' exemplified by the experience of the Samaritans with the woman of Sychar and with Jesus. 'Now we believe, not because of thy saying; for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world,' John 4:29. External evidence and the internal experience in man's soul are the two basis of faith in Christ; and only personal conviction drawn from Christ's saving grace in each soul can preserve our religion in these fearful days of infidelity and blood shed. The subject for the evening was, 'Not Love, but Love,' based on the attitude of the five thousand whom Jesus fed by his miracle on the mountain. Miss Harriet Curry gave a beautifully rendered solo at each service.

WOLFVILLE.

Gaspereau.

Miss Parker returned last week from her home in Bellisle, Annapolis county, where she spent the holidays. Our school reopened Monday with a good attendance of pupils and our teachers, Miss Benjamin and Miss Ward, have resumed work.

Mr. Harold Powell has returned from his visit at the home of his aunt in Springfield.

Mr. Freeman Coldwell is recovering from a very severe attack of the grippe. The death of LeRoy Stevens, V. S., occurred at the home of his father, in Melanson, on Monday, Jan. 4th. Mr. Stevens had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for two years. A widow and son survive him.

Mrs. Ward and little son, of Kentville, have been spending the holiday season in Gaspereau, guests of Mrs. Ward's mother, Mrs. Harriet Davidson.

Gaspereau Division, S. of T., holds very interesting sessions on Saturday evenings. This (Friday) evening the members will entertain Canard Division in this Hall.

This is the Week of Prayer in our church, and the services are most helpful. Tuesday evening's meeting was addressed by Mr. N. A. Whitman, and Thursday evening's by Mr. Clyde Robbins, both of Wolfville.

Mr. George Baines met with quite a heavy loss last week in the death of a good horse.

Mrs. Russell Krennie and her son, Clarence, also Mr. J. D. Martin, were called to Falmouth last Saturday, in consequence of the death of Mrs. Thomas Martin, which occurred at her home at that place very suddenly Thursday, Dec. 31st. The deceased lady was 57 years of age, and was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Krennie and Mr. Martin.

Our people were deeply grieved when, on Wednesday, it was learned that Mrs. Edward Davidson had passed away at 6 o'clock that morning. Mrs. Davidson had been in failing health for some months, and her death was not unexpected. She was formerly Miss Elizabeth Eagles and was 79 years of age. Her life was passed almost entirely in this village and both young and old have known the pleasure of her genial, Christian personality and hospitable home.

The Tabernacle Sunday School Treat.

The Tabernacle Hall was the scene of a very festive gathering on New Year's night. Between sixty and seventy children of all ages sat expectant and orderly, listening to the music of a gramophone while the last touches were given to a 'bean supper' prepared for their benefit.

The room was gay with festoons of colored paper and a prettily dressed tree bearing candy bags and fruit, stood in one corner.

Soon the call to supper was given, and the children with some of the older members of the school sat down to the well-filled tables and were waited on by many willing helpers.

A program of singing and recitation followed and reflects great credit on the children taking part, and the teacher, Miss Theakston, who had trained them.

The candy bags and oranges, etc., were distributed, and after singing the National Anthem the happy, jubilant children dispersed to their homes.

We feel that a vote of thanks should be given to the kind friends whose generous contributions made the affair a satisfying success. (The word 'satisfying' refers to the beans.) OUR PRIZE.

Sound Sense.

The following remarks, full of sound common sense, were made by Rev. Father Gauthier in the course of an address at the Maritime Forward meeting, at Amherst:—

'Speaking of the 'Made in Canada' cry. That phrase is excellent, but made in Canada carries absolutely no force when we have not the quality to back it up. It is the quality that counts, and no matter how hard the made in Canada business is pushed it will not be successful unless it carries quality with it. Then and only then will the purchaser buy home made goods. I want goods made in the Maritime Provinces of a quality so excellent that we can all stand back of it.'

Wedding.

PICKARD—CHRISTIE.

A very pretty wedding took place from the home of the groom's uncle, 69 Batchelder street, Roxbury, Mass., on Dec. 25th, when Mary A. Christie was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Cecil R. Pickard.

The bride looked very young and becoming, attired in white satin with veil trimmed with white roses and orange blossoms and carrying a large bouquet of white roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Marguerite Christie, who was in Roxbury for the wedding, acted as bridesmaid and was becomingly attired in fawn colored silk with hat to match.

After the wedding a reception was given the many relatives and friends of the happy couple.

In the evening the bride and groom left for a short honeymoon through-out the state. The bride's travelling costume was a suit of blue serge trimmed with sable. The hat was black velvet trimmed with mink and two large plumes.

The bride was the recipient of many useful and beautiful gifts, including linen, silverware and cut glass. The groom's present to the bride was in gold. The present of the bride's father was a cheque for five hundred dollars. The groom's present to the bride was a gold coin in a beautiful leather case.

The bride is well known in Wolfville, being the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Christie.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pickard, of Parrsboro, N. S.
