Kil-mer, appearing for the city in its suit against the street railway over the old Kramer-Irwin matter, stated that the motion as to having the points of law settled first had been dropped. Frank McCarthy, for the defendants, asked for the costs of the motion, but as the par-ties could not agree as to the facts, the ense was enbarged until March 5th. City Solicitor Waddell stated to-day that this meant the case would go on at the pext Assizes, without first settling the points of law involved.

Young Man Wanted Here Arrested Splendid Address by Wm. Hunt of Near Berlin.

Jim Ferguson, alias Henry Shafer, is a bad kid, the police say, and their opinion is based on facts. He has been con-victed here and in many other cities on charges of theft and highway robbery, and even now is wanted here for the robbery of a farmer named Smith at the Red HW in 1004. Smith was held up and $17 taken from him by two youths, after he head taken them into his wagon to give them a Hit. Ferguson was searched for at the time, but escaped ar-rest. His pal was sent down, the police of Orangeville capturing him. Ferguson is under arrest in Berlin on several charges of theft and the police here claim to have him solid on charges of burglery last summer and at different times since then, the latest only a few days ago. Ferguson told the burghers in Berlin that he would not give away where ion is based on facts. He has been conwhere the meeting of the Horticultural o'clock, and many who came later had to stand. The speaker explained fully the cul-ture of the different winter plants and flowers, telling when to repot them, how to guard them from the frost, and many other details, both interesting and instructive. He could not help thinking, he said, of the time, 28 years ago, that he left foronto to come to Hamilton to take up a position, which he occupied for twenty years. They were the hap-piest years of his life, and Hamilton the most progressive city. The speaker said he always made it a rule to try and get an afternoon with the school children in whatever city he was lecturing, because he believed the young people were as much, if not more, s pals and would not give away where e swag was hidden. He also informed em that if he had had a chance he them that if he had had a chance he would not have been arrested alive. He was arrested in a farm house near Ber-lin, which is ableged to be the haunt of "Foxey" Smith, who is at present in Central Prison.
