plough work has been satisfied. Missing MAN.—Mr. J. C. Fitzmaurice, a block-maker, who formerly kept a shop on Nelson Street, and who is an old and well-shown resident of this city, has disappeared since Saturday last. Between four and five o'clock of that day he was seen by his son, and the last that was seen of him was be-it ween aix and seven o'clock con Water Street. But a short time previously he came out of Mr. Ferrie's shop on that street, and did not then appear to be the worse of liquor. Since Sunday morning parties have been looking for him in various places: even the slips a have been searched, but as yet without avail, and it is foared that he has loat his life in some way. The description given by the MRS. GLENDONWYN'S FUNERAL.-This Mus. GLENDONWTN'S FUNEMAL.—This M afternoon, atome o'clock, Mrs. Glendonwyn's icorpse arrived by the train and was placed in the church of Notre Dame des Victoires. O At three o'clock the service commenced, a conducted by the Very Rev. Vienz-General Cazeau. The church was densely crowded, and hundreds of our eitsean remained out-side. After the service, the funeral cortage left for the Belmont Cemetry, taking Ann S streat en routs. More than three hundred persons followed in sleighs, and the streats were crowded with apectators. The Lieut. a Governor, the members of the Government and most of our principal eitizens followed to the place of interment.—Quebce Mercury, 6th inst.
