Amatite ROOFING

A Frank Statement
HOW many manufacturers of ready roofing will tell you frankly how their goods are made?

Mighty few.
They will talk about "secret formulas," "special waterproofing compounds," etc.—all nonsense.

They don't tell you what the goods are made of because they don't dare.

From the start we have never hesitated to tell the buying public just what Amatite is made of and just what it will do.

How Amatite is Made
Amatite is made of two layers of Coal Tar Pitch—the greatest waterproof material known.

Alternating with these two layers of pitch are two layers of coal-tar-saturated wool felt to give it tensile strength.

On top of these four layers is a real mineral surface—five layers of protection.

The mineral surface is permanent, fireproof, and absolutely requires no painting.

It Needs No Painting
Roofings that require painting are a worry and an expense. Every year or two you have to climb up and give them a coating with some special compound sold by the manufacturers, or you are pretty sure to have a leaky roof.

Amatite is Making Good
We are constantly receiving letters from customers telling us how satisfied they are with Amatite—how much better it is than the old-fashioned roofing.

Year after year, in all weather, Amatite will give perfect service without any painting or attention of any kind.

Surely this is the kind of service that wins and keeps customers.

Free Sample
Before you go to your dealer and buy a roofing, we should be very glad to send you a sample, so that you can see for yourself just what we are talking about—what a solid, substantial, reliable roofing we are offering to the public.

Something Back of It
Remember, in this connection, that Amatite is made by the largest manufacturers of roofing materials in the world, and that when you buy this roofing there is something behind it. We stand back of every roll. We know we are offering the best and the most economical ready roofing on the market.
