

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

Monday next is Queen's Birthday: Queen's quarters and half dollars are in circulation—look out for them.

The Charlottetown Waterworks Company met yesterday and adjourned to 10th June.

The Charlottetown Woolen Mills are undergoing repairs, and work has been suspended for a fortnight.

The Civil Service Examination took place in this city last week, before the Superintendent of Education.

"Loon Jours," the celebrated island organ, has been taken to Boston by its owner, J. A. Leaman of Truro.

Mr. RICHARD HUNT, one of the Provincial Agents of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, left last week for London.

Mr. J. R. KNOWLES, agent of Grip, and Mr. Foster, agent for Dr. West's Medicine, called on our office one day last week.

Mr. T. L. CHAPPELLE informs us that Justice McCarthy, the celebrated Irish nationalist, will lecture in this city some time in August.

Owners of cows, horses and pigs, had better look after these animals, as the police have received positive orders to impound all such found at large.

HALIFAX MARKETS.—Wheat, 45 cents Potatoes, 40 cents per barrel. Mesa Pork, $13.00 to $14.00; Thin Mesa $12.00 Rump, $11.00, Prime Mesa, $10.00 to $10.50 per barrel.

The City Assessor on Real Estate for the current year has been fixed at one per cent; that on personal property at one-half of one per cent, and the income tax at one-tenth of one per cent.

A FOOTBALL match took place at Victoria Park last Saturday between the St. Dunstan's College and Prince of Wales College Clubs, in which, after a most exciting contest, the latter came off victorious.
