MORRIS SHAKY IN THE WEST END.

Sir Edward Morris is hard up against it in the West End. He knows this full well as everybody else does. This morning an attempt is being made to boom him by giving the votes he polled since 1885. The most significant feature of this "boosting" of Morris for the West End is neither the picture which sets forth that he is Premier, as if the West End was not tired of him as Premier, but the figures which are omitted. The true significance of this omission is that it hides Morris's majorities over his leading opponent. We will show up these and their bearing on his present poor outlook in the West End. In 1909 Sir Edward Morris was the leader on the Liberal ticket in the West End and his leading opponent was Mr. S. G. Collier. They polled respectively:

Morris	2317
Collier	1059

Majority 1258
 This shows a majority of 1258 for Sir Edward Morris, when he led for the Liberals in 1909.

In 1902 he was unopposed, the Tories did not think it worth while to test the Liberal strength.

In 1904 Sir Edward Morris again led the Liberal team in the West End and his leading opponent was Mr. J. J. McCarthy. At that election he did even better as the leading Liberal. The votes of Morris and McCarthy were:

Morris	2394
McCarthy	1073

Majority 1321
 From these figures it will be seen that Morris's average majority, as a Liberal candidate, in these two elections was near 1300. Now mark the significance of the figures which follow when he came out with all the zeal of leader of the People's Party and at a time the tide of public feeling had set in against the Liberal Government.

In the election of 1908, the opponent who scored highest against him was Mr. G. Power. Their votes were:

Morris	2274
Power	1822

Majority 452
 What a falling off was there. Instead of a majority of 1321, his majority was cut down to 452. This showed that his personal hold on the district had fallen very much. Here we would ask why the Daily News misquotes the votes Sir Edward Morris polled in 1908 and 1909. The Daily News gave his 1908 votes as those of 1909 and those of 1909 as those of 1908. Is this misquotation a mere inadvertence or was it made intentionally? As the Daily News gives the figures it is made to appear that Sir Edward Morris received more votes in 1909 than he did in 1908. That is not the case. He polled less. Instead of increasing his vote as Premier he scored less. He scored more in 1908 as leader of the Opposition than he did in 1909 as leader of the Government. In 1908 as mere leader of the People's Party in opposition his vote was 2274, as Premier and leader of the Government in 1909 he polled 2205. His vote was 69 less. Mr. W. J. Ellis had the highest vote on the Liberal ticket. Their votes were:

Morris	2205
Ellis	1858

Majority 347
 This was the most significant feature of all. His majority dropped from 452 in 1908 to 347. In other words his majority as Premier was 105 less than it was as leader of the Opposition. This shows what little faith the West End had in him as Premier.

Since that time, the West End voters have had some four and a half years experience of him as Premier and leading member of the West End, and that experience is not a happy one. They have had their fill of it, and they want to end it. Hundreds of fervent supporters of his in 1908 and 1909 are now up in arms against him. They are to be met all over the West End, and they are as strenuous now in opposing him as they were in supporting him in 1908 and 1909. It is the same in Broad Cove, the Goules and Petty Harbour. The people of Petty Harbour have not forgiven him in changing the first survey which put the Petty Harbour station on the branch line, much nearer their settlement than it is on the line which was actually constructed.

If any confirmation of this feeling of uneasiness in the breast of Morris, it will be found also in the columns of the Morison organ this morning, which is booming him as the friend of publican and temperance men, although Mr. Donald Morison in 1905 taunted him in the Daily News with the same tactics in the following words:—

"If my main object in life was what the man in the street called political success, I might have taken pattern by Sir E. P. Morris, who is such a warm friend of Temperance and rum-sellers at one and the same time.

The fact is the West End is ready for a change and Morris knows it. There is an overwhelming change of sentiment in the West End and the vote their in 1909 showed that a change of only 69 votes would have put in Mr. Ellis and put out Mr. Kennedy. The West End has made up its mind that Morris Must Go. BOND CAN'T LOSE.

Political Cullage.

The Daily News made a bad break this morning in its editorial "On the Political Culling Board." The People's Party and particularly Mr. M. P. Cashin will not thank the Morison organ for reviving the memories of Cashin's own break in the House of Assembly, when he put the fishermen of the Island on the culling board and threw out those who worked on the Trepansey Branch as cullage. It will only incite the fishermen to be firmer in their determination next November, when they have the candidates of the People's Party on the political culling board to throw them out as cullage. They have not forgotten the contemptuous references made to them by both Premier Morris and Minister Cashin on the appeal the fishermen made to have an election last fall. In solemn session at Bonavista last December they re-affirmed their alarm at the extravagance indulged in by Morris and their determination, when they get the chance, as they will have in November next, to throw out the Morris Government as cullage. Morris Must Go. BOND CAN'T LOSE.

Inter-Brigade Rifle Contest.

The Inter-Brigade rifle match for the Governor's cup will take place tomorrow week at the Rifle Range South Side. The competing teams will be the C. L. B., C. C. C. and Highlanders. The Methodist Guards, who won out for several years past, will not be in the shoot this year. It is generally reported that the contest will be between the C.L.B. and C.C.C. but the Highlanders may give somebody a surprise.

Personal.

Major Harry Shea, son of the venerable Dr. Shea, who had been on a visit to his father and friends, left by the Digby for England.

Masters F. and E. Bowring left for England by the Digby.

The Masters W. A., H. B. and L. Reid went on the Digby to resume their studies at college.
 M. De Laroque, the French Consul, proceeded to France by the s.s. Digby.
 The Misses Job, daughters of Hon. W. C. and Mrs. Job, also went by the same ship. They have spent their vacation with their parents here and will resume their studies in England.

Rifle Club Notes.

The following team will represent H. M. S. Cornwall at the Rifle shooting competition which takes place on Friday next at the South Side Range commencing at 2.30 p.m.
 Captain Brewer, R.M.L.I.; Chief Gunner Curran, R.N.; Gunner Denton, R.N.; Art. Engr. McBroon, R.N.; Ships' Steward Roach, R.N.; Corp. Carpenter, R.N.; Sergt. Willis, R.M.L.I.; Pte. Coats, R.M.L.I.

The team will have a practice shoot over the range on Friday, a.m. The local team are very pleased to have this opportunity of testing their marksmanship against the visitors, and a good contest will result.

Decoration Sunday

At Lower Island Cove.
 Sunday, Aug. 31st, was observed here as Flower Sunday or Decoration Day. At 2.30 the members of the Sunday School, parents and visiting friends, met in the church where a brief service was held by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Browning. Leaving the church the gathering proceeded to the old cemetery, where a service was also held and from thence to the sea-side marching down the launchway, the children threw flowers on the sea as a token of remembrance of those dear ones whose bodies have found a resting place in its depths. All then joined in singing.

"Eternal Father Strong to Save etc" which was followed by a portion of scripture by Rev. L. G. Hudson.

The gathering then marched to the new cemetery where a service was held in a vacant spot. Touching remarks, concerning the dear departed, were made by Rev. Mr. Browning and Mr. A. G. Hudson. After the singing of the Doxology the friends deposited flowers on the graves of their loved ones.

The members of the Ivy Mission Band and others gathered around the grave of little Samuel Morris, when the hymn: "When He Cometh etc." was sung. The members of the Band deposited flowers on the grave as a tribute to the memory of their beloved comrade and fellow-worker in the Cause of Missions.

Everybody loved Sammy and he will be greatly missed by, not only his comrades, but by all who knew him. Being intellectually smart, he would have, no doubt, earned his way high. But his work was accomplished and he is now with the Master whom he loved.
 He is gone, and we shall see him On this earth no more to roam; Until hand and playmates greet him In that bright eternal home.—K.M.

A Big Liberal Victory. That is What the People Say

As to the Turnkeys.

Yesterday we advocated that the turnkeys of the city be given a uniform like other civic officials. Now though still maintaining that a uniform should be given the men, we would ask Mayor Ellis and the City Board not to conclude that the item was inspired by Messrs. Robert Pachter or Martin Morrissey, for these hardworking employees had nothing whatever to do with it. We saw the necessity for this requirement and will uphold it. Some of the loud-mouthed officers too, in this city, who are too previous had better be careful. However, as we said before both Pachter and Morrissey should be uniformed men.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
 Before Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, suffragette, can be admitted to the States in October, the Immigration authorities will decide whether any act for which she has been imprisoned in England, constitutes moral turpitude within the meaning of the law, and makes her an undesirable alien.
