Womens C. L. B. Association.

At a largely attended meeting of the Women's C.L.B. Memorial Association which was held at the Gymnasium in the C.L.B. Armoury last night, the President, Mrs. Alderton, occupied the chair. It was decided to provide suitable dress for the children of the C. L. B. Orphanage as a memorial to the men of the C.L.B. who have fallen in the war. The uniforms of the boys of the institution, who have been made members of the C.L.B., are the first to be provided. Owing to the summer holidays it was thought that very little would be done till September when each member has pledged herself to raise $5.00 towards the object in view. All who wish to become members of the Association on payment of a small sum.

In Hospital

Lance-Corporal A. T. Brown, of "Ours" who returned from England last night over a week ago where he was in hospital since the battle of Cambrai suffering from a severe gunshot wound in the left leg, entered the General Hospital here on Saturday for treatment. L.C. Brown was attached to the Telegram press room staff before enlisting with "Ours." He is not yet 20 years of age.

Big Katch for Me.

(With apologies to the Cottage by the Sea.)

"Childhood days now pass before me,
Boots and shoes I once did know
Like a dream they hover over me,
Boots with copper round the toe.
Often on those days I've pondered
When I climbed the apple tree,
Thought in many boots I've wandered
None like Big Katch boots for me.
Fancy sees the boots my "Daddy"
Used to wear so long ago
When I was a spry young laddie
And in winter loved the snow,
When I often went out sliding
With those boots above my knee,
Yet to you I'll be confiding,
None like Big Katch boots for me.

Big Katch boots they can't be beaten
By the other rubbers here,
You will find your feet "feels heat"
If you just should wear a pair,
'Tis the purest gum they're made of,
Warm and water tight you see,
Try a pair when you are "paid off,"
None like Big Katch boots for me.

Soon their praise they will be singing
Up at Godroy's fertile shore,
And from there it will be winging
Down to creek-rimmed Labrador
Where the hardy men go fishing,
Where the seas roll wild and free,
For those boots they will be wishing,
None like Big Katch boots for me.

Many are already wearing
Big Katch boots upon our Isle,
For them Burin folks are caring,
And at Burgeo and LaPoile;
And Placentia's sons are calling
For those boots to wear at sea;
Fortune Bay in line is falling,
None like Big Katch boots for me.

Big Katch boots you'll find them
Better
Than the boots you ever wore;
Write to Mr. Pratt a letter,
He'll attend your note for sure.
Big Katch boots, no boots are
Stronger,
Sold by Hickman and Company;
Try a pair, don't wait no longer,
None like Big Katch boots for me."

July 16th, 1918. BIG KATCH.

Sagona from Labrador

The s.s. Sagona, Capt. W. Parsons, arrived from Labrador ports yesterday, having been as far north as Hopeville. Notwithstanding that the weather was foggy throughout, the Sagona made the trip in little over two weeks. She brought a few passengers, and a small quantity of freight to this port. The captain reports the fishery to be poor. All the schooners have reached the coast, and gone north, except about twenty small craft, which are at Battuan waiting for the fish to strike in. There is very little ice on the coast, the main body having been north of Hopeville for some time. The harbor ice only recently broke up, the livers using komatiks and dogs for traveling from place to place, up to a week ago. Though the winter was very severe, no reports of any people being short of food, or suffering from any serious illness were received. The trappers operating on the coast have done better this year than for a great many past years, and all report good catches. The black and silver fox catches are a record. One American gentleman, representing a fur firm, purchased $28,000 worth of skins, and returned by the Sagona. Mr. R. White, formerly of this city, who has been at Nain the past five years, is reported for 40 black, over 60 silver fox peltries besides many other skins, while the Hudson Bay Co. and Revellon Bros. have handled large quantities.
