PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

INTERESTING BASEBALL GAME FOR WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

In order to augment the League funds which have been sadly depleted owing to the large sum required to put St. George's Field in proper condition last Spring, it was suggested by the League to Manager Hall of the Cubs that they—as last year's champions—should challenge the Red Lions—who copped the pennant this season. This is the Cubs agreed to, but only on the condition that it be clearly understood that the object of the game is for the reason as stated above, as they do not desire that either the Lions and their supporters, or the fans generally, should consider that it was from any ulterior motive that they wish to clash with the champions, more particularly when it is remembered that the Lions have trimmed them in two out of the three occasions in which they clashed.

With that true sporting instinct for which the Lions have been noted, Hiltz and his crew took them on, so that the best game seen here for years should be the outcome, as the patrons who occupy the bleachers are divided in their opinions as to whether one team has the edge on the other. Free from the worries of the pennant being at stake, all the players can loosen and show the best that's in them. In addition, as the regular lineup of the City team is composed solely of players from both these teams it will afford them an excellent opportunity for practice.

The clash will take place at St. George's Field at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, and will be a full regulation game of 9 innings.

MR. THOMAS REPLIES TO MR. HARTNETT.

Mr. A. Harvey Thomas, the sporting editor of the "Post" replies as follows to the strictures made by the Wanderers' manager—Mr. T. V. Hartnett—which appeared in this column on Saturday regarding the Lions-Wanderers' game:—

Editor "Telegram" Baseball Column. Dear Sir:—In reference to the outburst made by Mr. Hartnett which appeared in your column on Saturday, I beg to reply by explaining matters in a sportsmanlike manner, and that it be strictly understood that I do not wish to cause ill feeling towards anyone.

First, Mr. Hartnett states that I—the reporter for the Post—did not favour his team with good treatment. I wish it to be understood that anything placed in print by me—either said, done, or heard amongst a gathering of fans attending a ball game which attracts my attention—I am not to be held responsible for.

I do not know who the party or parties were that uttered the remarks such as "selling the game, etc." I did not make an appearance at the game for the purpose of twisting and turning my head to see who were doing all the shouting, passing remarks, criticising players and plays alike, etc. To set matters right, Mr. Hartnett should make an appearance in the bleachers occasionally, then probably he may be fully justified. How do I know but that many a remark has been passed off on myself when I make an appearance on the coaching lines. The answer is:—Nothing worries me; they can say what they like, do what they like; it's all in the game of sport.

Secondly, my friend Mr. Hartnett goes on to say that it was through the Wanderers indirectly that I was able to secure my "old" (?) position as coach for the Cubs' team. Allow me to make it known that this is absolutely false! My Dear Hartnett, what are you trying to drive at? The Cub uniform was there for me whenever I deemed fit to don it when making an appearance on the line. And a special one at that!

Thirdly, I fail to see where I have done an injustice to the champion Red Lion team. I admit that they outclassed your club. I wrote of the champions all that was due them, in the report I gave of the game. In conclusion I may say that the victory was a just and most popular one.

Trusting that our quibblings have ended, and if not, I will always be prepared to cross-fire "small as I am."

I am,
Yours truly,
A. HARVEY THOMAS.

HOME-TEAM PICKED.

Lt.-Col. Montgomerie met with Messrs. Chesman and Hartnett met on Saturday afternoon, and picked the St. John's baseball team to defend the R. G. Reid Inter-town Trophy next week against the Grand Falls' aggregation. The following League players were their selection:—

Batteries—Callaghan and Hiltz; Hall and Clouston.

First Base—Joe Murphy.
Second Base—Billy Callahan.
Third Base—Laird Orr.
Shortstop—Lionel Mann.
Right Field—Dan Kielly.
Centre Field—Fred Phelan.
Left Field—Billy Gossé.
Spares—O'Donnell, Ellis and Brett.

It is to be regretted that Lieut.-Col. Montgomerie who has so successfully guided the "home-team" to victory for the past four years will be unable to act as manager this year as he is leaving on Thursday for St. John. The City "nine" will be therefore controlled by Mr. T. V. Hartnett with Art Hiltz as field captain.

The first game for the Championship of Newfoundland will be played on next Monday evening at 6 o'clock. The visitors will arrive here on Sunday's express under the guardianship of Manager Morse of the inland town. The City team will have its first practice to-morrow evening at 6.30 at St. George's Field when the new uniforms will be given to the players. Tickets for the grand stand will be on sale at Mr. Chesman's to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

BASEBALL WEDNESDAY.—On Wednesday afternoon this year's champions, the Red Lions, will play a picked City team.—Aug 25, 11

At the Majestic.

The Majestic Theatre presents to-night the Paramount production, "Viviette," featuring Vivian Martin. In this superb picture, Miss Martin is seen as a beautiful, impulsive, thoughtless girl who is loved by three men, one of them a primitive man of that description calculated to stir the heart-strings of almost any impressionable young woman. He lacks self-control and his jealousy nearly provokes a tragedy, but he is later transformed through his love for Viviette, and after numerous thrilling events, each probes the depths of the other's heart and both find happiness in their mutual love.
