A Pregnant Silence.

To-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, a two minutes' silence will be observed throughout the British Empire and the Republic of the United States of America.

To-morrow all peoples under the British and American flags are asked for a scant two minutes to let work drop from their fingers; to let mundane thoughts pass from their minds, and permit their hearts to drift back three years to a time when the sound of guns carried a message of horror: to give from their wealth of hours a few brief seconds of thanksgiving of memory and of gratitude.

To-morrow all peoples under the British and American flags are asked for a scant two minutes to let work drop from their fingers; to let mundane thoughts pass from their minds, and permit their hearts to drift back three years to a time when the sound of guns carried a message of horror: to give from their wealth of hours a few brief seconds of thanksgiving of memory and of gratitude.

minutes before 11 o'clock, the bells and chimes of the city churches will send forth a musical peal to direct the attention of the populace to the approach of the hour. The two minutes' silence will be observed as in former years, and in common with the hundreds of millions of fellow subjects and our American cousins, the heads of Newfoundlanders will be bowed before Deity and knees will be bent in thankfulness to the Omnipotent for the deliverance granted.

"For heathen heart that puts her trust In reeking tube and iron shard; All valiant dust that builds on dust, And guarding calls not Thee to guard."

Represented at Washington.

NEWFOUNDLAND OFFICERS WILL PRESENT WREATH.

At noon to-morrow there will be in Washington a function similar to the great Cenotaph celebration in London of a year ago. To-day the unknown soldier of the United States of America lies in state at the Capitol, and at twelve o'clock to-morrow that great democracy will do him homage. Not alone will the United States take part in that ceremony. Newfoundland is represented, not by a formal representation of politicians, but by a captain and two lieutenants of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, who in the uniform of their Regiment and as representatives of the people of Newfoundland, will lay at the foot of the tomb of the unknown American soldier a floral emblem of Newfoundland as the tribute of our country on this momentous occasion.

Conference Arranged.

A conference between the Executive of the G.W.V.A. and the Executive of the Government has been arranged to take place at noon to-morrow, when the matter of penalties will be discussed. The full Executive will be present, with the exception of Hon. W. R. Warren, who is at present in England, and Hon. W. F. Coaker, who is at Port Union. The latter, it is understood, has been asked to be present. The Veterans' Association and returned soldiers in general are hoping that to-morrow's conference will settle the present grievance, and that as promised by the Government, the new scale of pensions will be immediately introduced, placing our returned men on the same level with the Canadian pensioner.

Yum Yum Sale.

The Yum Yum Sale held yesterday in the Lecture Room of Cochrane St. Church was very successful, and stall holders were kept busy during the afternoon and evening attending to the needs of the large numbers of people who were present. The sale was opened at 2 p.m. and it was not long before everything available was disposed of. Excitement then subsided, and stall holders were kept busy during the afternoon and evening attending to the needs of the large numbers of people who were present. The sale was opened at 2 p.m. and it was not long before everything available was disposed of.

B. I. S. Dine Football Champions.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

Last night in the spacious Club Rooms of the Benevolent Irish Society, a complimentary dinner was tendered the Football Team, champions in the 1921 League series. The rooms and tables were handsomely decorated, the color scheme being green and gold, the decorations being of the most elaborate and brilliant.

Dressed Chicken. Dressed Veal. Baked Ham. Dinner Rolls. Cakes. Pastry. Trifle with whipped Cream. Nuts and Raisins. Tea and Coffee.

After full justice had been done the good things so well provided, the chairman opened the feast of reason, and in a happy speech welcomed the guests to the first function of its kind held in the newly remodelled rooms of the club, and after very complimentary remarks on the every event, declared the toast list, which is given in full: The King—Prop. The Chairman; Resp. "God Save the King." The Archbishop and Clergy—Prop. Mr. J. C. Pippy; Resp. "The Pope's March."

The Christian Brothers—Prop. Sir R. A. Squires; Resp. Mr. J. P. Croty. The B.I.S. Football Team—Prop. Mr. G. W. B. Ayre; Resp. Mr. H. J. Phelan (Capt.). The N. F. Football League—Prop. Mr. P. F. Moore, M.H.A.; Resp. Mr. C. E. Hunt. One Opponent—Prop. Mr. C. J. Fox, M.H.A.; Resp. L. Kavanagh (Star), H. Coutts (M.G.), A. Galway (Cade), Eric Chafe (Feldians), R. Knight (C.E.I.), P.O. Williams (Briton), H. Barnes (C.L.B.C.), F. Watts (Highlanders).

All the speeches were of a high order of eloquence and distinct, and were so framed as to compliment all those who so manfully played their part in outdoor athletics whether at home or abroad during the season now closed. The list was interspersed with selections by the B.I.S. orchestra, songs by Messrs. Karl Trapp, P. Wallace, G. W. B. Ayre; recitations by Father O'Brien, who is a renowned Shakespearean scholar, J. P. Croty and G. W. B. Ayre who rendered "Lochaber Bell" in true Scottish style. A step dance by P.O. Williams, M.H.S. Briton, was a special feature of the evening. The entertainment lasted well into the morning, being brought to a conclusion by a grand postlude by the Orchestra, the singing of "God Save Ireland" and the National Anthem. To all who so palatinskly assisted in making the B.I.S. Football Dinner the event of the season, great praise is due particularly to the Ladies' Auxiliary who spared neither time nor effort in enhancing the success of the function.

McMurdo's Store News.

As autumn advances, there is more and more need to guard against sudden colds occasioned by rapid and extreme changes of weather. One means of guarding your health against the onset of colds and coughs is the possession of a box of good throat lozenges, such as our Pine Tree Lozenges, which contain the proper antiseptic substances and expectorants needed to avert such an attack, and stop the cold or cough at the beginning. Price 85c. a box.

Fish Prices.

Quite a number of fishermen from the salted settlements, Pouch Cove, Topsy, Flatrock and Baulina, were in the city this morning disposing of loads of fish. The prices paid for good shore was as high as $1.65, but many of the sellers thought that they could do better with their fish, where the call was not so strict.

Scene in Court.

PRISONER CREATES DISTURBANCE.

It took the combined efforts of two stalwart constables to remove a prisoner who had been sentenced to 30 days imprisonment in the Magistrate's Court this morning. The prisoner was formerly in the American Army and is of huge build, being well over six feet in height and proportionately broad. He recently served a term in the penitentiary for vagrancy. The charge against him to-day was that of breaking into and sleeping in country houses. Head Constable O'Neil was in the witness box giving evidence in connection with the defendant's arrest when the latter, interrupted with a wild outburst, from which it appeared that he was under the impression that he was being falsely charged. He outcried police and lawyers and when two constables attempted to take him down, looked as if he were about to fight them. He struggled for some time and was finally brought down to the cells.

Another Shipment of Ladies' American Coats arrived by express yesterday to BISHOP'S Showroom. This is the fourth shipment this season; prices are only twenty-seven to fifty dollars each.

Customs Changes.

We learn that Mr. H. V. Hutchings is being transferred to the Customs Department to assist Mr. LeFessurier, Deputy Minister, or usually known as the Assistant Collector. Mr. Alan Goodridge, who preceded Mr. Hutchings, will resume his former position as Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries. Mr. LeFessurier has given 27 years of continuous service at his post and we trust that he will for a long time yet be spared to continue the service which he so faithfully performs. In Mr. Hutchings who has had some 18 or 19 years in the service, Mr. LeFessurier will have an able and efficient assistant, and one who will with the experience which he will impart, should in a very few years make him thoroughly competent to fill the position of Deputy Minister and Assistant Collector of Customs.

Keep the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 22nd, free for a Musical, in aid of the Girls' Industrial Home, at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Hutchings, 1 Harvey Road. —nov10,31

No Vote for Delinquents.

BUSY TIME AT MUNICIPAL OFFICE. The Municipal office is probably the busiest in town these days, and Secretary-Treasurer Mahoney and his staff are working overtime, preparing for the coming election and revaluing town property according to the new Charter. Voters in the city, notified by the fifteenth of the month and no one in arrears at that date, either in connection with the Poll Tax or other Municipal assessments, will be permitted to vote at the municipal election. Four thousand notices have been printed and sent to citizens, notifying them of alterations in the appraised values of their property, and Mr. Mahoney and his small staff has been working until long past midnight for the past few days, and will have to continue doing so until Nov. 15th, by which time the voters' lists will have to be placed in the hands of the Colonial Secretary. The names of all who are in arrears at that time will be struck off the lists, and they will not be permitted to vote. If, however, they pay up between Nov. 15th and polling day, they will receive a special certificate from Mr. Mahoney allowing them to use the ballot. The election has caused this congestion at the Municipal office, otherwise the work of the revaluation of town property, which must be done every two years, according to the new Charter, would not cause such a considerable amount of trouble. The Council is not going to stand any nonsense in connection with the matter of arrears and writs will be issued if payment has not been made in time. This applies especially to the delinquent work they are rendering in strenuous times.

Susu's Passengers.

S.S. Susu sailed this morning for Grosby & Co's premises on the Pouch Cove. She took a large freight and the following passengers:—S. P. Abbott, Mr. Mason, Misses Nina and Emma Winsor, Miss J. Smith, Mrs. Stotts, Mr. Bowden, Mrs. J. C. Brien, Mrs. B. Hand, Mrs. Stotts, John Winsor, J. Blackwood, Mr. Woodland, E. L. Mr. Fred Winsor, Mrs. Roberts, Mr. P. Roberts, A. French, Miss P. Turk.

Don't forget Grand Dance at the Empire Hall on Nov. 11th, 1921. Ladies, 40c.; Gent's 50c. Double ticket $1.00; at 8.45.—nov10,11

"As Like as Two Peas."

The Non-Partisan League of North Dakota, U.S.A., has a facsimile in this Colony, in the P.P.U. They are as like as two peas. Townley of the former, and Coaker of the latter are twin brothers, naturally. The former has been sent to jail. The electors, undecorated at last, turned the Townley crowd out of office, using the "Recall" about which friend Grimes used to speak in the Assembly years ago. The following extract from an American newspaper should be widely read, and wisely applied here:—

THE NORTH DAKOTA ELECTORS.

The Non-Partisan League admits its defeat in the special election recently. Governor Frazier is hoist by his own petard. Mr. Townley announces that he will submit to the findings of the courts and serve his jail term for the crime of sedition. The whole experiment in State socialism has thus been stopped in North Dakota by the very voters whom it was to dazzle with prosperity and fill with millennial joys.

Relieving Storm Sufferers.

REPRESENTATIVES LOOKING AFTER DISTRICTS.

The representatives of the various districts visited by the recent storm are now having surveys made for the purpose of estimating the extent of the damage done and the number of people who are in immediate need of relief. Immediate repairs will be made to works only partially destroyed to protect them during the winter. This applies particularly to wharves from which timber has been broken off, and which during the winter gales would probably be completely destroyed if repairs were not effected at once. A considerable amount should be saved in this way. The relief of storm sufferers who are in need of assistance is receiving the earnest attention of all the district representatives interested. The greatest amount of damage seems to have been done in the Grate's Cove section. Up to the present the Government has not adopted any general relief scheme in connection with the matter as it can be dealt with efficiently, at least for the present, by the district representatives.
