Profits of the Reading Road for a Year.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—The attention of Vice-President Shaughnessy, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, having been called to a report in some Canadian papers that there would probably or no through trains from the Pacific Goast over the Canadian Pacific Railway for a week because of snow slides in the Rocky Mountains, that gentleman stated that "Such report was absolutely without foundation. One train in each direction had been detained about eighteen hours by snow and mud slides, but with that exception detention to trains was comparatively slight. During the last two days trains have arrived at their destinations very promptly and all trains to-day are running practically on schedule time.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 9.—The directors of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company to-day authorized the payment of 5 per cent. interest or the first, second and third preferred bonds. Interest on these bonds has not been paid in years. It was resolved that the contracts, agreements and engagements entered into and recommended by the board of managers be ratified and approved. Net traffic earnings for the year, $11,199,042; profit, $315,714,712. The net profit in operating the coal and iron company for the year was $2,433,940.
