"Right for you, Doctor. She be a sharp un!"

The King's Head was in a state of extraordinary commotion, which hardly calmed down even upon the arrival of the Doctor. The ordinary bustle consequent upon the change of horses was over; but the landlord was staring and whistling in a bewildered way, the chambermaid was running wildly, and without an object, up and down stairs, and the sharp mistress was scolding everybody impartially, and without reason. One or two habitues of the parlor, whom no weather had been known to keep away for twenty years, were both talking at once and giving all sorts of contradictory advice to which no one listened.

of contradictory advice to which no one listened.

The Doctor himself was seized upon by the landlady, who at once led him an upstairs bedroom.

He saw a woman lying upon the bed, a man, whom he guessed to be her husband, standing by her side in a state of helpless distress, and a little girl, of some three or four years of age crying in a corner. On addressing the man, he found him to be a Frenchman; but, as neither could speak a word of the other's language, the discovery was not of much use. Turning, therefore, his attention to the woman, he saw that she was in a aging fever that would in all probable by confine her to her bed for many weeks to come, even if it ever allowed her to leave it alive.

Having done what he could under the circumstances—given the landlady such directions as he thought necessary—told her not to be alarmed about the expense for a day or two—and had another glass of grog at the bar—he went straight home, and, as he always did under circumstances that at all ran out of the usual groove, consulted his wife. She, as she was apt to do, said little, but did the wisest thing that could be done. She made her husband go to bed, went to bed herself, called at the King's Head early in the morning, and then without delay, went to see Mrs Raymond

Head early in the morning, and then, without delay, went to see Mrs Raymond of New Court.

CHAPTER II. There have been so many good women in the world-for everybody knows or has known one, and most people know or have known more than one-that it would be unfair and invidious to say of any one woman that she was the best that ever lived. Nevertheless, had all Denetherp and all its neighborhood been polled on the subjects, it would have given an unhesitating and unanimhave given an unhesitating and unanimous vete for this Mrs. Raymond. She more than supplied the want of a resident family at Earle's Dene; and if New Court had but little political influence, it had all the love and affection that Earl's Dene wanted. If she had lived beyond middle age it may safely be said that none of the complications of this history would ever have been be said that none of the complications of this history would ever have been brought about; for nothing with which wrong. As for her husband, he was anything but a nonentity; he was a most admirable country gentleman—and than that what higher praise can be bestown. ed?—but he believed in his wife as much as the rest of their world, or even more, if that had been possible. There are some women whose husbands at their death have nothing left but to sit down and die for company; and Mrs. Raymond, of New Court, was one of these women.

This excellent lady lost no time in be-coming acquainted with the unfortunate strangers, whom she found out to be French refugees trying to make their way to London-not because they had friends or prospects there, but just because they knew not where else to go. The child, she learned also, was not a daughter, but an orphan niece of madame. As much through her care and TOMMY RYAN TALKS. Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 8.—"Tommy" Ryan, who claims the middle-weight championship of the world, said last night concerning the challenge issued to him by Jack Hanley, manager for "Rube" Ferns, at New York today: "I will make a match with Ferns within 24 hours if he will put up his forfeit with Geo. Siler or any reliable news-paper man. I am ready to meet Ferns or any other white middle-weight in the world who will weigh-in at the middle-weight limit. I had decided to retire, but all this talk about me bekindness as through any skill of his, the doctor's patient recovered; and there would have been no difficulty about his bill, even had he made any. And then it ended in Monsieur and Madame Lefort establishing themselves in Denethorp for good and all. They could teach a great many things between them; and so they joined that large army of emigrant teachers with whom those of us who can date back the days of their instruction to the beginning of the century have so many recollections, half ludicrous, half pathetic.

At first, of course, Denethorp did not afford these two very much; and they had to thank their patroness for tiding them over a great many early difficulties. In acting thus towards them, the lady of New Court was no doubt mainly moved by the generosity of her heart, but she had another motive. Her little girl, her only surviving child—for, as a mother, she had been as unfortunate as she had deserved to be the reverse—was within a year or two of needing teachers, and the mother could not but feel what an admirable thing it would be to have two persons close at hand who would save her from being obliged to send her child away too soon. In a few years, too, the new prosperity of the town created a class of mill-owners' daughters with an ambition of becoming fine ladies; and a girls' school sprang up in the place, which was patronized by ing a heavy drinker and a 'has-been' has changed my plans. I take the best of care of myself, exercise daily, and never dissipate." Ryan appears to be in good condition.

The latter, when Europe was once more at peace, was sent by her guardians to finish her education abroad; and, at her own request, was allowed to take with her the niece of Madame Lefort, who had always been a pet at New Court, and had to a very great extent been a sharer in the lessons and games of its heiress. Alice managed this arrangement quite as much for the sake of her own pleasure and comfort as in order to keep up her mother's kindness to the family: indeed, her affection for her playmate was that of a sister. This means that several small sections have joined, and have discontinued the use of the old school house, and instead have erected a large one, containing as many rooms or grades as the num-ber of the united sections.

Sir Wm. McDonald is greatly interested in the growth of the system, and the offer he has made to the Province of Ontario is a result of this Nervousness, Sieepiessness, N. P. and it follows closely after a gift of $125,600 for an extension of the Agricultural College work at Guelph.

"It is thought," Mr. Harcourt said to day, "that the experiment will be tried this year, and one or more consolidations will be undertaken." The scheme, Mr. Harcourt added, is best suited to populous portions of the province, where the roads would be good. The children in the Western states, where the scheme is in successful operation, are taken to and from school under contract, just as mail carriers contract for the carrying of mails. An indirect advantage is that in order to reap the advantage is that in order to schools the people spend money in improving their roads, so that the two reforms go hand in hand.

WORN TO A SHADOW.

When there is a falling off in flesh in woman or man there is "something wrong." And that something wrong is generally a loss of nutrition due to disease of the stomach and the other organs of digestion and nutrition. Sometimes this loss of flesh is accompanied by variable appetite, but in many cases the ap-petite does not fail and there may be a constant desire to eat. Languor. nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, are symptoms often associated with this loss of nutrition and falling off in flesh.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food so that lost flesh is regained and the physical health re-established.

"I had suffered from indigestion and only those who have suffered from it know what it really is," writes Mrs. M. J. Fagan, of 1613 East Genesee St., Syracuse, N. Y. "I had had severe attacks of headache and dizziness, with cold hands and feet; everything I ate distressed me, bowels were constipated and I was growing very thin and nervous. I cannot half express the bad feelings I had when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took nine bottles of the 'Discovery' and have taken several bottles of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I commenced feeling better with the first bottle and kept on improving. Now I am so greatly improved in health my friends often speak of it. I most heartily recommend these medicines to all suffering as I was."

TONIGHT'S GAME. The Tecumseh hockey team had a light practice last night, preparatory to meeting the St. John's Athletic Club team in an exhibition game tonight at the Jubilee Rink. The game tonight is for the benefit of the Tecumsehs, to enable them to be better prepared to meet the team from Waterloo on Friday night, at Waterloo, in the first championship game of the season. The Tecumsehs have a hard team to buck against, and they are training accordingly. The boys that turned out last will be in fine trim to play the St. John's A. C. team. The St. John's A. C. team has been one of the city's strongest City League teams for a number of years and understand the game perfectly. They are quite confident of winning and so also are all to witness the game. A good crowd should witness the game, as they will have a chance to see what both teams can do. A large crowd has expressed their approval of sending a special to Waterloo with the boys, and it may at eight sharp.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC CONTINUES TO SPREAD

Numerous Fresh Cases—Dowieites in Stephen Township Causing the Spread -The Disease in Michigan.

Toronto, Jan. 7.- The smallpox situation is not improving. Fresh cases this morning were reported from Kent, Norfolk and Hastings counties. The Jordan outbreak is due to a woman agent of the Dowieites, who, it is feared, has spread it in many localities.

There are three new cases of the disease in Woodhouse township, one in Elzevier township and two houses infected in Dover township. DOWIEITES MAKE TROUBLE.

It now transpires that the peculiar religious sect, in Stephen township, Huron county, who have smallpox in their midst, and who have bothered the provincial board of health with their aversion to physicians, are Dowieites, followers of the notorious Chicago apostle. One of the number, furthermore, has caused more trouble for the department. By some means or other she got out of one of the quarantined houses in Stephen, and made for Jordan Beach. Her object Trimble, a veteran horseman and the to escape quarantine and to preach the gospel of Dowieism to blind sinners. Now she has small-pox. And as she has exposed many persons to the contagion in her enthusiasm to preach since coming to

The Greatest Little Fighting Machine the World Has Ever Produced, Says He Was Cured by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

He says: "For the past six months my back has troubled me more or less, caused no doubt by the exeessive training that I have had occasion to go through. I tried various remedies for this trouble and received no benefit. My attention was attracted to your advertisement in the daily papers, and one of your ads in particular impressed me; it was that of Tommy Ryan. Now, our business being of the same nature, I thought if you could accomplish what your ad stated it had done for Tommy I was sure that it would help me. With this in mind I took the first opportunity of speaking to Tommy on the subject, and after hearing from his own month the good that your Belt had done him, it overcame all doubts in my mind as being the proper remedy for me. I immediately got one of your Belts, and had only worn it one week when the results were marvellous; every sign of soreness left my back and the muscles seemed to get stronger and more elastic; aside from this, it has made me feel so good that I think I could tackle a giant and get no worse than an even break. Your Belt is positively the greatest invigorator it has ever been my good fortune to use. You can use the above where and how you like, as I think I am indebted to you more than words can express.
