A DOUBLE WRECK

Passenger Train Plunges Into Two Wrecked Freights.

New York, Dec. 22.—One employee was instantly killed, one seriously injured, and one is missing, and one passenger was badly hurt near New Brunswick, N. J., this morning, in a double wreck, which caused the block-ing of all four of the main line tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and seriously interfered with traffic for several hours. Two westbound freight trains crashed together and passenger train 101 from New York for Philadelphia ran into the wreckage. The dead man is Frank Knox, fireman of the passenger train.
