Appeals For Harmony and Cooperation in Administration of City.

MAYOR SPEAKS

Stating that the claims of labor were just as important to him as the claims of other classes in the city, Alderman John Anderson, the "harmony in the city council" candidate for the mayor's chair this year made a clear cut appeal for labor's support today to the em-ployees of McClary's foundry at noon to-

Alderman Anderson who was given an attentive hearing at the lunch hour, speaking briefly on his platform re-butted the insinuation of Mayor Wenige that in voting against the grant for tree trimming last winter, he had shown himself opposed to the needs of the unemployed.

"I voted against the money being spent and administered by the public utilities, and not by the city engineer," he said. "It was not that I was against the proposal to grant funds to provide work for the unemployed. I was never opposed to that and never will be. But I wanted to see things done as I believe and do believe in the proper way and that was by the city directly, and by the city engineer's department.

On the question of the mayor's statement that he had voted with the mayor 267 times. Mr. Anderson completely turn

'What really happened was this' he exclaimed, "I vote second in the council while the mayor voted last. As a matter of fact the mayor voted with me 267 times. In all cases I voted for or against motions not for or against the mayor. The statement of the mayor in this regard is misleading."

When it came to discussing the street railway question one on which George A. Wenige has been conspicuously lent in during the elections campaig the alderman, came out quite plainl with his view of the case.

Right About Face.

"Mayor Wenige will find it unan-swerable that he has made a "right about face" on the question of the street railway "he declared." In 1922 the mayor as a candidate urged a (show down with the company) and in his inaugural address of 1923 he urged forcing the company to live up to its agreement. That is exactly what should be done. But soon afterwards the mayor wobbled, and in his inaugural of 1924 advocated 'co-operation' with the and even went so far as to mor entures for that. This was not my sending the two clauses to the people.

I voted no on both."

"I believe that the workingmen of London will get more benefit from the old fares of seven and nine tickets for a quarter than from the present straight 5-cent fare."

The "Mayor's Sleeve," which hasbeen the subject of many a brisk discussion in the city council in the past two years, was given a passing
