Take It Seriously.

Ed. Cairns, who spoke on ideals and habits in connection with the boys' work, made a plea to members to consider the seriousness of the matter, and to make it a personal matter between them and the particular boy in whom they were interested. He invited them to study their boys in the concrete, instead of in the abstract, and to give freely their boys in the concrete, instead of in the abstract, and to give freely of their time and thought and advice in helping these coming Canadians.

Dr. Banghart, speaking on the cooperation between club and the boys, gave the credit for the success of the movement in London to date to Fred Ross, Hugh Murray, Neil Stryker and Tom Roy. To Fred Ross in particular he gave the credit for the work done by the club for the underand Tom Roy.
