From THE DAILY COLONIST, December 28.
SIR WILLIAM WALLACE.

Memory of the Noble Scotsman Honored by the Society Bearing His Name.

Banquet and Dance in the A. O. U. W. Hall Attended by Many Guests.

"Some have met at a dance and some have met at a ball. But we have met at a dance and we have met at a ball. So let the Lord be thanked."

Such were the jolly lines heading the menu of the first annual banquet of the Sir William Wallace Society at the A. O. U. W. hall last night. Scotchmen are a good deal like Englishmen in one respect. They feel happiest when they are sitting down among congenial spirits. For the occasion the big hall was decked out in bunting; Fian's orchestra stationed on the platform played during the dinner hour and also at the dance that closed the evening's enjoyment. The scene looked very gay, the members of the gallant society had invited their lady friends to participate in the enjoyment. It certainly helped to make the evening all the greater success.

Chief Russell, in tartan and kilts, presided, with Mrs. Russell. To the right at the table of honor sat Mayor and Mrs. Rogers, Dr. Lang, Senator and Mrs. Macdonald, Rev. P. McRae, Macleod. To the left were Mr. Robert Irving, president of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society; U. S. Vice Consul Egan, Rev. Mr. Macdonald, Principal Paul and Ald. J. Keith-Wilson. Around the tables sat some thirty or thirty gentlemen and ladies who thoroughly enjoyed the very excellent dinner. Mr. W. K. Tulloch of the Wilson entered admirably, including the time honored songs, "Glenlivet," "The Puddin' Race," which was escorted by pipers John Moore, J. Anderson, M. McDonald and A. Robertson.

Letters of regret were read by the Secretary, Mr. A. M. Macleod, Lieut. Governor Davidson, Hon. Theodore Davis, Lieut. Colonel Prior, M. P., President Elliot, of the Sons of Erin, and Mr. A. C. Flumet, president of the Board of Trade. The Governor General, patron of the society, had written expressing his wishes for its prosperity. The usual local toasts were proposed by Chief Russell and drunk in lemonade and water, the dinner being on temperance principles. In proposing the Governor General and Lieut. Governor Davidson the Chief drew attention to a fine large crayon portrait of Lord Aberdeen, presented to the society by Mr. Byers. "The Cook of the North," the Aberdeen time, was played by the pipers in honor of the toast.

Mr. Andrew Hay proposed the President of the United States in a neat little speech. Vice Consul Egan made a very happy reply. It was, he said, a feeling of mingled joy and pleasure that he responded for his country and President Cleveland, who represented the best type of American citizenship. He paid a high tribute to the President, saying that his career from the farmer boy, till now he stood the representative of the people's trust against the efforts of combines and monopolies. The speaker cordially hoped that the friendship between the British Empire and the United States would always continue. More had been accomplished in the past 50 years by the English speaking people for the good of mankind than had been done in all the centuries that preceded the gift of the torch. He concluded by quoting Burns in regard to the time "when man to man the world o'er shall be brothers by the sword."

A central Scotch toast by Mr. Wm. Allan followed, and then the toast "The Dominion Parliament and the Legislative Assembly," proposed by Dr. Lewis Hall and responded to by Senator Macdonald, who referred to the sorrow felt throughout Canada at the untimely death of Sir John Thompson, who from a lowly cottage in his native province had risen step by step till he reached the highest position in the gift of the people of the Dominion. Then touching on the House of Parliament, he mentioned amid applause that a large number of the members were Scotch or of Scotch descent. Dr. George Davidson, a colorful speaker in proposing the Mayor and City Council, echoed the Scotchman's prayer, "Lord be merciful to our sales and sales, but especially the town council of Ayr."

The Mayor responded, thanking Dr. Davidson for his very kind remarks and was followed by Ald. Wilson, who complimented the Scotchman on his banquet. Miss E. B. Davidson sang with great effect "Bonny Prince Charlie."

The Army, Navy and Volunteers was proposed by Mr. John Macleod and responded to by Mr. Macleod.

Rev. Mr. Macleod made a capital speech in proposing "the toast to which Mr. W. H. Ellis, Mr. M. Egan and Mr. W. Templeman responded."

"The land we left and the land we live in," was proposed by Rev. P. McRae, who told some capital stories that "set the table in a roar." Rev. Mr. King replied. To Past Chief Jameson told the story of proposing "Glenlivet" by Mr. Robert Irving of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society.

"The Ladies," proposed by Mr. Allan, was responded to very graciously by Mrs. Russell, and the last toast "The memory of Sir Wm. Wallace" was proposed by Dr. Lang in eloquent terms, the company rising and singing a verse of "Glenlivet."

A vote of thanks was passed to the entire Mr. Tulloch. The tables were then cleared away and dancing was kept up for several hours longer.

SHIPS AND SHIPPING.

Yess for the safety of the nine overseas American vessels from British Columbia ports are given today and many theories as to the cause of their long detention are put forward. Secretary Carleton yesterday ordered the revenue cutters Grant, at Port Townsend, and Rush, at San Francisco, to proceed to sea at once and steam northward in search of the nine referred to, which are now eleven days overdue. It is only six weeks since the Invincible foundered in the North Pacific, and this adds to the apprehensions that the vessels are lost. The schooner Albi, which is now at Moodyville, reports on her outward voyage to Shanghai on September 2, twenty-three miles southwest of Cape Horn, being an unknown white vessel about 150 tons burden, bottom up. No vessel of that description however is reported missing from the Sound.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the steamer discharging the Portland's cargo of coal stopped work, as by that time the vessel was on an even keel. A board of inspectors then set to work to examine the vessel and their finding will probably be made known to-day.

THE CITY.

On the evening of the 28th inst., the new public hall on the Colquhoun road will be formally opened with a ball. The ball is in the same structure 20x45 feet and is designed to satisfy a demand frequently felt in the neighborhood.

A SATISFACTORY meeting of the Board of Trade Building Association, was held yesterday and business the subject of superannuation to the company while not of interest to the public. The association is in better financial condition now than at any previous period of its existence.

The seventy-eighth appropriation of the Vancouver Island Building Society was made on the 28th inst. The committee being composed of Messrs. Joshua Holland, George Gormley and J. H. Macleod. The winning shares were 218 A and B, held by Mr. James Young, of Nanaimo, who is thus entitled to $2,000.

Ten hydrostatic test called for in the specifications for the new electric light machinery just purchased by the city, was made on the 28th inst. The test was made by Mr. Thomas Shaw, of the Alton Iron Works, Engineer, Stiklos and other practical men. The test was pronounced satisfactory in every respect.

AGUSTIN CHAUVAUX, a native of France, who for twenty years or more has been an inmate of St. Joseph's hospital, died there yesterday afternoon at the age of 81 years. He had been born in Paris in September, 1803. At the very urgent request of the deceased the remains were forwarded last evening for interment at St. Mary's Mission, Fraser river, where he had resided many years.

An unlucky female man while seeking customers on Government street early yesterday morning encountered a bold highwayman. The latter approached his intended victim with a request for a cigarette and when the woman of the "hot" buttoned his coat to respond generously he was pinioned and a hasty search of his pockets commenced. There was a struggle in the course of which a belated pedestrian approached and the would-be highway took flight and to his heels.

The little ones of the St. Ann's kindergarten school on View street dispersed for the holidays yesterday, the closing exercises being witnessed by a large number of parents and friends, who may safely be said to enjoy themselves quite as well as did the younger folks. The latter, as customary, presented an attractive programme of music and recitations, in which they showed themselves apt to receive instructions and clever little entertainers. Afterwards there was a Christmas tree, and Santa Claus—who is kept busy night and day just as he is—proved that age has not dimmed his eye or clouded his memory for names and faces. He had something for each and for all.

AT A MEETING of the parishioners of St. James church, James Bay, on Thursday evening, a committee was appointed to ascertain what support in the way of a fixed salary could be given a resident minister. It is understood that the Rev. Mr. Gordon will continue his services with the church, although he has resigned, until his place is suitably filled. His resignation has been tendered in order that he may have time to give more closely to the duties of the archdiocese, but it will be some time before the resignation takes effect. The committee appointed has been given two weeks in which to complete its work; at the end of that time another meeting of the parishioners will be called.

JAMES COLEMAN, who on Tuesday night helped himself to three pairs of blankets belonging to the steamer St. David, went out to the provincial jail yesterday, where he will serve two months for the theft. Coleman was in "good" before Sergeant Egan, who made the arrest, was aware that a theft had been committed. The blankets were sold by Coleman under somewhat peculiar circumstances, and the sergeant arrested him on suspicion. Then he inquired if any blankets had been reported as stolen; found that such a report had been received, and closed up a thoroughly creditable case with the conviction of the offender.

Dr. H. B. FINDLEY, a popular young dentist of Victoria, has been receiving the congratulations of numerous friends at the matrimonial enterprise which he ventured upon on Thursday evening. Miss Nellie Baker was the bride, and it was at her home on Chestnut street, in the presence of many friends, that the ceremony was performed. Rev. Solomon Cleaver officiating. The best man and bridesmaid respectively were Frank M. Gryderman and Miss Louise Baker. After the ceremony, supper was partaken of, and the happy couple left on the Kingston on a honeymoon trip to Portland. Upon returning they will take up their residence here.

The teachers of the public schools differ considerably upon the questions that the pupils of the schools were called upon to answer in the written examinations just concluded. A number of the teachers believed the questions, especially in grammar and arithmetic papers, too difficult and the result was a somewhat lively time at the last meeting of the Teachers' Institute. Mr. T. H. started out with a resolution condemning the examination papers which had been prepared by the board of principals of the schools. Why did he not rather ask for censure on the answers? one principal suggested and some merriment. After a little talk Mr. Dale came to the conclusion that the papers themselves were not to blame, so he switched his motion to censure the principals themselves. Mrs. Caldwell seconded him, and Miss Lawson characterized the explanation that the papers were made on the limit tables, Mr. McNeill, Miss Cameron and Mr. Blair doing most of the fighting for their side. Finally after a long fought battle the question was put by the chair. Somehow a number of teachers did not care to censure their principals, although not approving of the papers. The result was that they did not vote at all and the motion of censure was lost.

QUINCE, Dec. 21.—The Montreal bill was up before the private bill committee today, when the clause to tax telegraph companies $1 on each penny and $10 per mile length of wire was carried.

SANTA CLAUS HAS ARRIVED.

Children Now in Merry Glee Gather Round the Christmas Tree.

Last Evening's Cheerful Entertainment in Four of Victoria's Churches.

As pleasing a programme as one could well desire was that presented for the entertainment of the audience gathered in St. Andrew's Presbyterian schoolroom yesterday evening as guests of the young ladies of the church. There was variety in the bill of fare—and that is a great deal in itself. There was also excellent quality, and in quantity just enough and not too much. Of course the "piece of the evening" was the comedietta, "Sir Cops of Chocolate," a bright and witty extravaganza in which the characters were original and well sustained. Proceeding and following this more pretentious number were vocal and instrumental selections, in which the Misses Rose, Miss Stephens, Miss McMillan, and Mr. Barnett participated. The programme was quite right and well presented. They will always please. Last evening's subjects were chosen with special care; more romantic, graceful or attractive pictures could hardly be imagined than the well known "Nydia," the blind girl of Pompeii, so dear to all hearts; "Hope," "Diana," and "A Picture of Bliss."

"They look as though they were all out of bags," remarked Rev. Dr. Campbell, speaking of the children at the Sunday school Christmas treat in the First Presbyterian church last evening. The reverend gentleman was quite right; they will not be disputed by any who saw the youngsters after Santa Claus had made his appearance for their benefit. The pupils had been regaled with a fine dinner, and the platform transformed into a gallery, on which were seated nearly one hundred children of the school. These, under Superintendent Mason's direction, rendered very prettily a number of songs, and the evening's entertainment was a success. The programme was quite right and well presented. The mistletoe bough is always associated with Christmas, and every body likes to retain the good old custom of hanging it in the home during the holiday season. To supply the demand, Mr. Jas. Moss, of 99 Quadra street, has this year imported a fine lot of mistletoe from England, and no one who wishes to secure some can do better than call upon him.

PROF. RUSSELL'S chalk talk furnished an interesting programme for last evening's Y.M.C.A. concert. There was a fairly good attendance and the entertainment ran smoothly. The piano solo by Miss Hamilton, vocal solo by Mrs. W. H. Rogers, and the song "The Olden Days" by Mrs. Rogers, and the vocal duet by Mrs. Rogers and George Grimsby, were greatly appreciated.

The War Cry presents this week a very creditable Christmas number, which includes an supplement in lithograph work, the picture of "The War Cry" and the picture of "The War Cry." The War Cry contains many graphic and interesting stories, as well as portraits of several notable men in the Salvation Army. The number is a really bound, and has a very presentable appearance.

MEMBERS of the British Columbia Board of Trade are reminded that the quarterly general meeting will be held on Friday, the 4th proximo. There was talk of introducing at this meeting a resolution to result in an interesting debate, but unless formal notice of such business is sent out with the Secretary's intimation to members discussion cannot be held. Notices of new business should be placed in the Secretary's hands at once.

The Spring Ridge Methodist Sunday School teachers and scholars are trying to prove that the hard times have not damped their ardor, they having just purchased and for a new literature, and are now preparing a reception for young and old, consisting of dialogues, songs and recitations, in fact a general good time for all who go. This will be held on Wednesday next, when a Christmas tree will be decorated, and a good time will be had. The children will be given presents and prizes.

COOLEY & FITZGERALD came up before McCreight and Wilkison, J.J., yesterday. This was an appeal from an order setting aside a notice of trial until after Mr. Justice Giesbrecht should deliver his opinion on a motion argued before him in April last. The appeal was fully reserved. The appeal was disallowed with costs in the cause, and the all parties to the Ophir Belcher. A REDUCTION ASKED FOR The following self-explanatory petition has been in circulation for several days past, and has already nearly four hundred signatures, including those of many influential business men of the city:

"We, the undersigned shipowners, carpenters, pilots, shipwrights and others of Victoria and Esquimalt, beg respectfully to call the attention of the government to the question of reducing the dock charges now in force at the Esquimalt dry dock."

"Your petitioners consider that if the present charges were reduced it would be the means of making the dock self-maintaining, and would also be a great benefit to the province in general. The present vessels waiting repairs and steamers wishing to be docked pass this place and go where the dock rates are cheaper. As an early consideration of the above would be of great value to the undersigned. One of the circulating of the petition said yesterday that they have no objection to getting the dock rates reduced to that benefit the city. The petition had not been got up with the motive of injuring any man's business, but simply with the object of keeping here vessels which could not otherwise be repaired in this locality. There has not yet been enough call taken out of the Portland to discover the leaks in the vessel. Consequently no conclusion was reached from the survey made on her on Friday afternoon."

LORD RANDOLPH CHURCHILL

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The Morning Post will say to-morrow: "Lord Randolph Churchill is paralyzed in one side and is unable to recognize his friends. His mother and sister, Lady Winifred, have started for Marseilles to meet him. Constitutionally he is of an excitable temper, and this has been aggravated by excessive smoking, the want of outdoor exercise, and lately the use of opium, also, are given as causes of the wreck. It is impossible for him to continue in politics."

THE CITY.

The following public passengers left San Francisco yesterday on the steamship Unalaska: P. E. Lindsey, Mrs. O. J. Robinson, Miss M. Goodwin, Miss A. Goodwin.

Mrs. NEIL HEATH, F.G.S., is to lecture on "Facts Concerning the Sandwich Islands," at the next meeting of the Diocesan Literary and Scientific Society on the 3rd proximo.

As customary, the gentlemen of the choir of St. Saviour's church, Victoria West, with this week go round from house to house singing Christmas carols. They began their morn appreciated exercises last evening.

MR. A. K. SINGH, a seal hunter, who has been on the schooner "Herring" for several seasons, returned a few days ago from Halifax, N.S., with a young bride. Mr. Singh has been receiving the congratulations of numerous friends since his return.

The following donations to the Christmas dinner of the Old Men's Home are thankfully acknowledged: Victoria Brewing Co., two bottles of beer; Herring, one bottle of beer; and a turkey; Lieutenant Governor Davidson, prime roast of beef and a goose.

The children of the Central Presbyterian church Sunday school will be given their Christmas treat next Thursday evening, when the children of the school will be given a fine dinner, and the platform transformed into a gallery, on which were seated nearly one hundred children of the school. ## THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Splendid Football—Victoria and Vancouver—Rangers and Barrack Athletics.

International Match to be Played on Christmas Day—Much Interest Manifested.

Before a fair attendance of spectators Vancouver met Victoria at Rugby Football on the Caledonia grounds yesterday afternoon. The ground was soft and the ball greasy. From the start it was plainly Vancouver's game, mainly owing to their superior combination play. The kick off was taken by Warden at 3:10 o'clock, Victoria lining up to defend the south goal; the ball was smartly returned, and play settled down at the half way line. After several scrums the ball was cleanly heeled out by the Vancouver forwards, and by clever passing it was carried into the Victoria 25, where Campbell was stopped by Miller. Smith relieved soon after by a long punt, which was returned by Senkler. A free kick was shortly after awarded to Victoria for off side play by Vancouver, but the ball was smartly returned, and play settled down at the half way line.
