

SOLID NORTH SHORE DEFEATS GOVERNMENT

Restigouche to Albert Went Solid for Opposition--
Liberals the Victors 27 to 21-- Many Surprises for Government.

"The Battle has been fought and the Enemy are ours"

Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland, Kent and Westmorland, a solid North Shore from the Restigouche to the Petitcodiac for good government.

Saturday was a regular winter day. A light fall of snow did not interfere with the voting and, all day, from evening to the closing of the polls, teams were busy getting the voters out to vote.

Shortly after 4 o'clock the polls closed, (they were a little late in opening) and soon the results were known. Liberal workers were disappointed with the vote in town, but on making comparisons with the previous election it was found that the Conservative majority had been cut in half in St. John's stronghold.

Tobique was the next poll and showed another majority for the Conservatives. Then came lower Durham, which showed clearly a hundred for them.

By this time the Liberals were beginning to fear the worst, but wiser heads continued to advise waiting for returns from Balmoral, Colborne, Baxter and Smith, and Dr. Taylor Grimmer, and other Liberal polls, and who was without portfolio, are all were not disappointed. Balmoral was the first and a rousing cheer went up as the figures were announced, then Colborne came in with 31 majority for the Liberals; next Grimmer No. 1 (Anderson) with 171. It was then considered safe to announce that Messrs. Currie and LeBlanc had been elected.

Further returns brought the majority to 206.

There was great rejoicing at the Liberal committee rooms, and all during the evening when the provincial returns were coming in there was much enthusiasm, especially when it was found that the Opposition was running close, and at last when the final results from Queens showed that the government was snowed under and the Liberals had 23 to the Conservative 21, all went home satisfied that the province had given a just verdict of guilty to the Murray government.

There were no doubts here as to how Gloucester would go on Monday and returns Monday evening from that county showed that the Conservatives were snowed under, the whole four government men losing their deposits.

The following are the returns for Restigouche:

WILLIAM CURRIE, M. L. A.

The province practically splits in two between the two parties with the result that apparently the control of the province will pass to the North Shore counties supported by the inland counties of Queens, Sunbury, Victoria and Madawaska with a solid majority in St. John.

Premier Murray and his colleagues, returns from Balmoral, Colborne, Baxter and Smith, and Dr. Taylor Grimmer, and other Liberal polls, and who was without portfolio, are all were not disappointed. Balmoral was the first and a rousing cheer went up as the figures were announced, then Colborne came in with 31 majority for the Liberals; next Grimmer No. 1 (Anderson) with 171.
