SAUNDERS-MCCOOMBES
A very quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's church, Nelson, on Saturday evening, Nov. 29th, when Rev. Father Power united in marriage Miss Irene McCoombes of Nelson, and LeRoy Saunders of The Fraser Lumber Co., Ltd.
Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left on the Maritime Express for Montreal and Upper Canadian cities. On their return they will reside in Campbellton—Chatham Commercial.

A MINERAL FIND
Mr. Milton Doherty the veteran C. N. R. locomotive driver, always had a fondness for mineralogy, and in his off days, frequently does yet make an exploring trip, in out of the way places.
A few weeks ago in a trip of this kind not more than two miles from St. Leonard's, he stumbled across a mineral vein, that made him dream dreams. The samples have been assayed which show several minerals, that certainly look good to the assayer, and gives every encouragement to the owner.
Mr. Doherty has taken up a mining claim of two miles area.

BY SPECIAL MESSENGER
A St. John man who had a valuable parcel to deliver at Campbellton, made up his mind that the easiest and surest way was to send it by a messenger. Thereupon, he secured the services of a Western Union boy, E. G. Foster, to do the errand. Foster left for Campbellton on Wednesday morning, safely delivered his parcel, and returned home on Friday night. It is not often messenger boys are sent off on a trip of this kind, but the employer evidently knew what was best to do—St. John Globe.
This parcel contained a special advertising clock which tells the time and throws advertisements on a small screen at the Opera House. The slides change every two minutes. The mechanism is so delicate that it could not be sent by express, consequently a special messenger had to bring it here from St. John.

FUNERAL
The funeral of the late Mrs. W. A. Mowat of Flatlands, was held on Wednesday afternoon from the residence of Mr. M. M. Mowat, Campbellton.
A short service was conducted at the house by the Rev. Hugh Miller, assisted by the Rev. B. C. Salter, of the Restigouche Presbyterian Congregation, the funeral procession leaving the house at 2.30. The pall-bearers were six nephews of the deceased. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent.

MAE EDWARDS

PLAYERS COMING

Campbellton theatre goers will no doubt hear with great deal of interest the announcement that the Mae Edwards Players will open a three day engagement at the Opera House commencing next Monday, Dec. 15th.

This company which is headed by two popular stars, Mae Edwards and Jack Werner Corbin, made a very favorable impression during a pleasant engagement last spring and their return will be all the more popular on that account.

They have a splendid line of plays, a capable cast of twelve or more people and in addition are carrying seven vaudeville acts headed by the Great Haverly. With special scenery and equipment there is no doubt but what patrons of the Opera House can look forward to a veritable treat during their engagement.

The latest mystery—Who are the wonderful widows? Follow it up.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS
All teachers of Restigouche and Gloucester Counties, holding a second or third class license, are invited to attend a meeting at Bathurst on Tuesday, December 23rd. At 2 p.m. there will be a private session when the Constitutions of the Union will be submitted to the teachers assembled, and delegates will be chosen to represent their respective counties when general meetings are called by the Union. At 8 p.m., a public meeting to which everybody will be welcome. As there will be prominent speakers from both counties, very interesting addresses will be delivered. Doucet's orchestra will furnish music, and solos will be rendered between the speeches. The place of the meeting will be announced next week.

MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear son, Pte. Hudson Harvey, who was killed in action Dec. 10th, 1917.

For many years, our family chain was closely linked together. But, oh, that chain is broken. Now, our loved one's gone forever. He was good, his spirit brave. He is resting in a soldier's grave. Peaceful be thy rest dear one. It is sweet to breathe thy name. In life, we loved you very dear. In death we do not miss you.
