BEARING SEA CONTROVERSY.

Mr. Charles Tupper Proves Himself to be an Able Representative—His Success in Impressing the Canadian View on Lord Salisbury—The Result Not to be a Matter of the Bearing Sea.

Mr. G. W. Smalley's cable letter to the New York Tribune of yesterday is a very important contribution to the bearing sea controversy. We have read our readers that Mr. Smalley is the London correspondent of the paper which is recognized more than any other as the organ of the Liberal cause in England. It reflects the views of Mr. Blaine in the most pronounced manner, and this is only another way of saying that the entire letter stands against what is a well-known fact, that the bearing sea is in its heading clause "The Canadian View."

We can only take it to mean that at least Canada has an able representative in London in Sir Charles Tupper; that he has succeeded in impressing the Canadian view on Lord Salisbury; and that Lord Salisbury is disposed to rule the bearing sea in favor of the Canadian view. We cannot do better than to quote some of Mr. Smalley's paragraphs in order to force our view of the importance Canada holds in the present situation.

Mr. Smalley's cable to the New York Tribune is dated March 26. It is anything but a mere statement of fact. It is a very pretty thing to see and hear. It is a very pretty thing to see and hear. It is a very pretty thing to see and hear.

WENT JOB ONE BETTER.

A Pool Woman Presents Her Husband With Three Beautiful Children That Died.

BRAMPTON, Ont., March 27.—The neighborhood of the fifth line west, Chinguacousy, in the immediate vicinity of lot 17, has been the scene of a tragedy. A pool woman, Mrs. James Keen, who has been in an unfortunate position over an event that occurred at the residence of Mr. William Sharpe on the 23rd inst., has been killed by one of her children.

Dr. Webster was on the scene early and he noticed her in a very serious condition. After the doctor had looked at Mrs. Keen's place while he beckoned the gentleman of the house to his lady's chamber and there showed the bewildered mother a child, she was all in a row, and as much alike as it is possible to have had them.

Mrs. Sharpe, the mother of the child, is a small fair woman about 35 years of age, and the father is a short, medium-sized man. Just a year ago Mr. Sharpe lost three small children by the dread scourge diphtheria, and now their places have been filled by one of his children.

The mother and the little one are doing well and all likelihood the infants will live. The Sharpe homestead is being visited daily by scores of baby worshippers.

DEATH OF A HUMAN OUTRICH.

Museum Performer Kennedy's Anatomy Filled With Hardware.

ST. LOUIS, March 27.—John W. Gorman, known in the city as "The Human Outrigger," died in the City Hospital to-night. He was admitted to the hospital last Monday, suffering from pneumonia.

Post-mortem examination showed that the walls and lining of the stomach were entirely normal but the stomach was filled with nails, screws and broken glass which the man had swallowed. None of them were encysted, and there was no inflammation of the stomach or any part of the digestive tract.

In the stomach itself there was found almost a handful of iron nails, the weight of them being around six ounces. The stomach was filled with hardware, including nails, screws, and broken glass.

The total quantity taken from the body would fill a pint measure. Gorman's father is in the show business in New York.

WALT WHITMAN DEAD.

For Months He Has Been Dying—Sketch of the Life of the Poet Who Wrote "Leaves of Grass."

CAMDEN, N. J., March 27.—Walt Whitman, the poet, died at his home here to-day. He was 63 years of age when he passed away as it is in sleep.

His illness began on December 17, 1891. To-night a plaster cast of his face will be made. He left a carefully drawn will.

Walt Whitman longed for the end, not because of physical suffering, or because life pined on him, but he felt that his life's work had been finished, and that his duty to his country was over.

I would both hands ready for the fire of life. I am ready to depart.

His life. He was born on the last day of May, 1819, in West Hills, on the north side of Long Island, near what is now the town of Huntington, in Suffolk county.

His father, George Whitman, was a farmer and later a carpenter and contractor. He was a member of the Dutch family of Van Velsor.

When Walt was 4 years old the family moved to Brooklyn, where he was born. When he was about 10 years old he entered the city of Brooklyn, where he lived for the remainder of his life.

Whitman's Own Story. He writes: "I began when I was a boy of 11 or 12, writing sentimental bits for the 'Brooklyn Daily Eagle' and for the 'Brooklyn Daily Eagle'."
