

"AND THE YEARS GLIDE BY."

provide for whatever the future may bring, until they are united about His throne, to part no more for ever.

And so our story ends, having followed the life-paths of Jessie and Willie Grey up to this very year of 1869, having shown that the bitterest sorrows, when rightly interpreted by faith, prove to be a source of blessing, and that, "to them that love God, all things work together for good."

God grant, my child, whoever you may be, that your heart is prepared and strengthened by this love to accept the chastening He sends! God grant that if to you is given "great tribulation" in the present world, you may have washed your robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb," and be thus fitted to be "before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple!"

No matter how successful your life may be to the eyes of the world, no matter how famous or wealthy your exertions in it have made you, if you have not trusted to the efficacy of the pardon bought by the blood of Christ, if you have not followed His footsteps and obeyed His laws, it can be but an entire failure, and will merit the dreadful sentence that was pronounced upon the faithless servant by Him who will be your judge!

Consider well and earnestly this one great question,
