

THE Canadian Missionary Link.

VOL. XVII. |

TORONTO, NOVEMBER, 1894.

| No. 3.

MISS SARAH ISABEL HATCH

Requires no introduction to the readers of the LINK. Belonging to one of Woodstock's well-known and most honored Baptist families, she is returning to India after a furlough of about eighteen months. During the years of her residence there, her work lay chiefly in connection with the Samulcotta Seminary, where she held the responsible position of teacher of the Word of God to the several classes of students who, in their turn, were to teach it to others. In addition to these duties, as opportunity offered, she visited the homes of the natives, superintended Bible women, established Sunday schools, and in every possible way did what she could for the salvation of the Telugu women and children.

God has, by a wonderfully marked answer to prayer, provided the means, and she goes forth sustained by the sympathy and prayers of many hearts. To JEHOVAH-JIREH be all the praise.

The high esteem in which Miss Hatch, and her work, are held in this home-land was evidenced by the consternation which prevailed when, a few weeks since, the Women's Executive found it necessary to make the statement that, unless the financial situation were relieved, her return at present would be impracticable.

MISS LOTTIE McLEOD

Whose face appears above, received her education in the public school and Collegiate Institute of London. She also received training for teacher in the Toronto Normal School, and possesses a provincial certificate of high grade.

For fifteen years she has been a painstaking and successful teacher in the London schools. Possessed of a winning manner, coupled with a keen appreciation of the responsibility of the teacher's position, her influence for good has been very marked upon all who came under her care.

When it became known last June at the Associations that Miss McLeod had made a gift of $400 to the Foreign Missionary Society, and, if thought worthy, had offered herself for Foreign Mission service, the hearts of our women were stir-

