

wiped the Saviour's sweaty brow and had His features left impressed upon her handkerchief, is also pointed out; and broken columns mark the places where Simon was compelled to bear His cross, and where the Saviour addressed the weeping daughters of Jerusalem. These "stations," these sacred points and places are

JERUSALEM—FROM THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.