COMPOUND

CHAMOMILE CORDIAL.

THIS Cordial, as its name pretends to, is prepared [illegible] by a Member of the Pharmaceutical Society, and from its [illegible] presents unequalled claims, from the [illegible] Tonic about to be offered to the public, as it [illegible] large amount of the [illegible] Chamomile, the same—Manufacturers [illegible] flavor, as wine or any other beverage, it is unequalled by [illegible].

These fractional virtues while fully preserved are more delicately concentrated and developed in the Cordial which from its transparency and golden colour, is suitable as a Wine, and as such may be used at the table. The flavor is truly delicious, grateful and the taste most genial and universally acceptable to the lady, the Temperance advocate, or Invalidism connoisseur.

TESTIMONIALS:

Toronto, June 26th 1852.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co.,

GENTLEMEN,—We have tested the Sample Bottle, with which you favored us of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and find it as you describe, fragrant and agreeable to the palate, and consider it an excellent Preparation for the use of the valuable Tonic Properties of the Flowers of Chamomile.

We are, &c.,
GEORGE HERRICK, M.D.
JOHN KING, M.D.

GENTLEMEN,—I duly received and have tried the sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial," which you sent me.

Aware of the manner in which you prepare it, and of the nature and quality of the ingredients which you employ in its manufacture, I cannot object to express to you in writing my opinion of it, which I should not hesitate to do under different circumstances.

I consider it a very elegant Pharmaceutical Preparation, susceptible of being made exceedingly useful in a dietetical as well as the medical point of view. It will serve as an excellent substitute for much of the trash which is purchased as Wine for the use of invalids; and will also prove an excellent medium for the agreeable conveyance of remedies, which, without some auxiliaries, are often rebelled against and rejected by the stomach.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours, &c.,
FRANCIS BADGLEY, M.D.

London, C.W., June 18th, 1852.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co.,

GENTLEMEN,—I have received the Sample Bottle of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and consider it a beautiful as well as highly palatable preparation. The aromatic and peculiar bitter flavor, in which lies the essential Medicinal qualities, appear to be largely infused and well preserved; and as this vegetable Tonic is highly beneficial in those forms of Dyspepsia, depending on debility, or want of tone of the digestive organs, (the form most frequently met with on this continent,) your Cordial will, I doubt not, form an unestimable addition to our Pharmacopœia.

From the knowledge possessed by me of Mr. Rexford and his very high reputation as a Pharmaceutical Chemist, I feel much pleasure in confidently recommending his preparation of this valuable Tonic to my Professional brethren, and to the public, as a delightful and invigorating Cordial.

I am, Yours, &c.,
GEORGE HOLMES,
Surgeon.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co., Toronto,

GENTLEMEN,—I have no hesitation in expressing to you my professional approbation of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial." The Tonic properties of the Flowers of Chamomile, with which it is [illegible] are so universally acknowledged and the Medicinal qualities of that vegetable ingredient so fully admitted in Dyspeptic complaints, that I consider the idea of admixture has in the Pharmaceutical of a Cordial, most happy, and in the case of your preparation, an successful, that it cannot fail to be a favourite with the public.

The Castilian Hair Invigorator.

THIS elegant Toilet Preparation is warranted to excel all others ever offered to the public, for Preserving and Restoring the hair, it prevents or cures baldness or grey hair; cures dandruff and ringworm; and what is of the highest importance, is, that it is unlike most other Toilet preparations, being perfectly harmless, yet successful for the purposes recommended. It gives the hair a beautifully soft, smooth and glossy appearance; in this it also differs from other preparations, all of which more or less harden and dry the hair. The Spanish Ladies so justly famed for beautiful and glossy hair, have used for centuries. It causes the hair to retain its original colour to the latest period of life, only making it assume a darker shade if originally very light. Diseased hair loosens and falls out or turns grey. The Invigorator removes such disease, and restores the skin and hair to a healthy condition.

The Castilian Hair Invigorator
