TORONTO TOPICS.

I rom our on a Correspondent

The Toronto mutes held a picule at Island park on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2nd. Quite a lot of deaf mute visitors from Hamilton, London, St. Thomas, etc., were present, they having taken in the excursions to Toronto to see the fair. The purpose of getting up the picuic was to have a gathering of the deaf mutes, as two visiting mutes from across the border, Mrs. Dunlap, of Brooklen and Mes Carroll, of Bollalo, were in the city. It was a most enjoyable afternoon for the mutes, which they spent in games, chats, etc.

arly all the Toronto mutes, as well as the visiting mutes took in the great Toronto exposition on Labor day, which was Citizens' day at the fair. The atwas Citizens' day at the fair. tendance on that day was about 95,000. All the mutes report having a big time and enjoying themselves most mmensely.

Mr. A. S. Waggoner, of Hamilton, accompanied by Mr. A E Shoppard, of Toronto, went to Ottawa on a visit on Sept 2nd. It is eight years since Mr. Waggoner last saw his home in Ottawa, and he noticed many changes there on his recent visit. He says Ottawa is a hue city.

Miss Maggie Hutchinson, of Gallaudet college, Washington, has been home in Toronto during the summer. Her folks and she has been spending most of the summer out at Sand Bar, which is on Lake Ontario and not very far from Munroe and Victoria parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore have been putting up at South View Cottage, along the lake shore at the island during the summer Miss Ethel Irvine, of Belleville, has been spending her summer holidays with them.

Mesers Darney and Elliott spent two weeks in Muskoka during the summer and returned to the city in the best of spirits and licalth.

Miss Marion Campbell went to Osliawa during the summer to spend a couple of weeks holidays with Miss Eliza James. Mr. Alex. Swanson, of Gallandet college, Washington, spent his sumvacation in Toronto. He was a valuable member of the deaf mute circle here during his stay in the city. Ho intends to o to Alberta, Northwest Ter-ritories, after the close of college next smitter to see his folks, they having moved out there from near Belleville. They now live eighty miles from Calgary, the principal town in Alberta.

Miss Weidman, of New York city, Mr.

Noah Labelle, of St. Alberts, Russell Co., Mr. Wilson Brown, from near Orango-ville, Mr. George W. Rooves, of Lindsay, Mr. High Carson, of Meaford and Mr. M. P. Wilson, of Niagara Falls have tren added to the deaf mute entitle of Toronto during the summer. Who

Mr. Jouathan Gates speut a week's vacation at Massassaga park, mar Belletille, during the summer.

Your correspondent her learned that Mr. John E. Crough, of Peterboro', is working in the C. P. R. shops at Perth, and Mr. Michael E. Noonan, who meet to work at the shops in Perth, is now employed by the Canada Atlantic Railway to their new car works at Ottawa.

On the 11th of August, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, Misses Ethel Irvine and Eva Elhott and Messre. Melutosh and Darnoy went to Niagara Falls to see the mater who were delegates to the Empire State Deaf Mute Convention at Buffalo, and who ran an excursion to the Falls ville school, but now of Buffalo, and at ] present attending Gallandet college at Washington.

Mr. R. C. Slater spent a week at Calt during his summer Lacation. Mr. Win Nurse, of Belleville, accompanied him

Mos Minnie Slater went to Muskoka. where she spent a two week's summer vacation.

There are say deal mute printers who base employment in the city at present They are as follows. Mesers, R. C. Stator. R. G. McLeon Printing Co., Loudard street. V. A. McIntosh, Bose, Hunter & Co., L.O.F., Temple Building Milward, Bryant Press, R. Immond street. West; Wm. O'Rourke, Cathelic Register, Lombard street, Ed. Picard, W. S. Johnson Printing Co., Adelaide street west, and D. S. Luddy, Head Office of York county's leading weekly, the Lot der and Recorder, Adelaide street east, near the post office.

There are five deal mutes employed in Boockh's brush factory, and one in the broom factory of the same com

A piculo was gotten up on Saturday afternoon in High park during the sum mer in honor of Mr. Charlie Elliott who taught at the deaf mutes Gospel meetings at the west end 1 M.C.A. and who nas on tho evo of leaving to take charge of the meetings held in the cost end, in a room at the Carlton street Methodist church. The following Saturday after noon another picuio was held at Munroe ', in Mr. P. Fraser's honor, who was feaving the east end for the west end as teacher at the Gospel meetings. These changes were made as Mr. Fraser lives in the west end and Mr Elliott new in the east end. A pleasing feature of both events was the good will and harmony oxisting between the mutes of both ends, It is needless to asy that they enjoyed themselves on both occasions.

Some of the friends called on Mrs. Wm. Sutton while in the General Hos pital and were pleased she was pro-gressing favorably. Mrs. Sutton was burt in a runaway accident and an operation was necessary. Mr. Wm. Nurse conducted service at the meeting in the west end Y.M.C.A. in the forenoon and at the general meeting nt Brondway hall in the afterneon when he stepped over Sunday.

Mr. Woodbridge, son of Principal Woodbridge, of the New Brunswick Institution for the Deaf, and Mr. Powers, teacher in the same school, fatored us with a risk at our Cospel meeting on Sunday, the 3rd of Sept. Mr. Powers gave us a brief address They are on a tour collecting funds to rebuild the N. B. school, which was destroyed by fire, as they have not the advantage that the Optario deaf have. of being entirely supported by the Govcrament.

Summer has come and gone, with some pleasant recollections of the past with the Toronto mutes. Deaf mute piemes have been more numerous than usual. The majority of the deaf remanuel at home during the holdays, as Torouto is not a dull place in summer.

Mr. Ed. Picks I had his wheel stolen during the summer. One evening he left it standing in front of the Tremont house and went up Yonge street for a walk and on returning could find no trace of his wheel, which was missing. The following day he reported to the detective department of the city police. His wheel was a "lied lind, and in less than a week from the time it was stolen, Mr. Pickard received a message from the "Red Bird" agency in the city that his wheel was returned to them. The thief, after studing the whoel, must have had no peace as he left it standing to front of a cigar store on King street west. The proprietor, after noticing it there so long took it in the store, as he thought it must have belonged to one of his customers, but as no one came to claim is he sent it to the agency from which it was bought.

We have been favored with visite from several mutes across the booler, namely Mrs. Dunlap, Brooklyn. Mirses Carrol, Buffalo and Miller, Chicago, and Mesers. William Lowell Washington, Win. Toegel, Cincinnati, Weil. Hacaszel and Schwayler, Buffalo The on us on his way home and with the air other visitors were as follows. Mrs. Me.
