

Bank, and when spoken to by a stranger he turned toward him and replied to his question. Though his conversation lasted but a moment or so, an accomplice of the stranger snatched from the clerk a wallet containing Bank of England notes to the amount named and decamped. In the confusion which followed, the stranger and his accomplice, supposed by the police to be expert bank sneaks, managed to escape. So far as known, neither the thieves nor their plunder have since been heard of. It will also be remembered that quite recently it was reported that the Bank of England had been robbed of £250,000, a statement which was denied by the officers of the bank. At the time of the National Provincial Bank robbery the authorities claimed that it was the biggest haul of money made by bank sneaks in a generation.—Cable, Sept. 21st.

The Financier has prepared a table showing the tremendous amount of wealth gathered into the leading banking institutions of the Empire State. It has made a list of all financial institutions, whether National, State or banks of savings or trust companies, holding a million or upward of deposits. There are 193 institutions on the list. Of this number the city of New York has 103. Fifty-four of the 193 on the list are savings banks, and the entire list of these leading official banking institutions carry over $1,400,000,000. The following hold each $10,000,000 or more on deposit by the report of 1891.
