

SCHOOL LIBRARY

CONTAINING ONE HUNDRED VOLUMES,

18mo.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 Anecdotes.—The Young.                 2 do Sunday Schools.                 3 Aunt Upton.                 4 Ban de la Roche.—David Saunders                 5 Barth's History of the Church                 6 Bible, its own Witness                 7 Blind Celestine                 8 Burder's Sermons to Children                 9 Campbell's Journey to Lattakoo                 10 Catherine Gray.—Alphabet of Hearts                 11 Children's Stories.—Little Stories                 12 Columbus' Life and Times                 13 Convenient Food.—Christian Prudence                 14 Davy's Sermons to Children                 15 Emily Rowland                 16 Example of Christ.—Marshman's School Dialogues                 17 Faithful Nurse                 18 Fireside; or Family Religion                 19 Flight of the Camivards                 20 Footprints of Popery                 21 Goodness and Mercy, or Deborah Curtis                 22 Goodrich's Child's Book of Creation                 23 Hints to Girls on Dress                 24 James' Anxious Inquirer                 25 Joseph Mayhew.—Youthful Disciple                 26 Journeys of the Children of Israel                 27 Katherine                 28 Kind Words, by Uncle William                 29 Kindness to Animals                 30 Learning to Think                 31 Learning to Feel                 32 Learning to Act                 33 Letters to the Young                 34 Little Ann                 35 Little Jane.—J. A. Spence                 36 Little Robert's First Day at the Sunday School                 37 Lucy Morley.—Accounts of Pious Children                 38 Manners and Customs of the Jews                 39 Memoir of John M. Mead                 40 do of Mary Lothrop                 41 do of Two Sons of a Clergyman                 42 do of Samuel Kilpin.—Miss Campbell                 43 do of John Hooper.—Ann C.                 44 Midshipman in China                 45 Miracles of Christ Illustrated                 46 Missionary Bee for the Young                 47 More Kind Words, by Uncle William                 48 Morell's Family Memorial                 49 Motherless Family                 50 Napoleon Bonaparte                 51 Natural History.—The Seed.—The Leaf                 52 do The Flower.—The Fruit                 53 do The Grass.—The Ant                 54 do The Honey Bee.—The Spider                 55 do The Gall Insect.—The Fly                 56 do The Nest.—The Egg | 57 Natural History The Feather.—The Song Bird                 58 do Instinct of Birds.—The Animalcule                 59 do The Coral-Maker.—The Sea-Star                 60 do The Lobster.—The Fish                 61 do The Hand.—The Tongue                 62 do The Eye.—The Ear                 63 do The Sense of Smell.—The Dewdrop                 64 do The Spring.—The Lake                 65 do The River.—The Sea                 66 Newton's Twenty-one Letters                 67 Osage Captive.—The Promise                 68 Parables of the New Testament explained                 69 Pink Tippet                 70 Pious Mechanic                 71 Play Hours                 72 Raven's Feather.—Morning-Star                 73 Rites and Worship of the Jews                 74 Roll's Plumbo                 75 Scripture Similitudes                 76 Simple Stories.—Pleasant Stories                 77 Stories from Switzerland                 78 Sunday Readings                 79 Swedish Shepherd Boy                 80 Thornton's Early Piety                 81 The Floods.—Negro Infant School                 82 The Lime Tree.—The String of Beads                 83 The Traveller                 84 Todd's Lectures to Children                 85 To-morrow; or, R. Beaton                 86 Two Apprentices                 87 Waste not, Want not                 88 Workhouse Boy 32mo 89 Blossoms and Fruit                 90 Encourager                 91 Grandfather Gregory                 92 Grandmamma Gilbert                 93 History of Joseph Green and his Sister                 94 Missionary Gleanings                 95 Missionary First-Fruits                 96 My Sunday Scholars                 97 Orphan's Friend                 98 Pike's Persuasive to Early Piety                 99 Richmond's Annals of the Poor                 100 The Village |
|---|--|

The above books are all bound and have been selected with care from the extensive stock of the London Religious Tract Society; sent out on such favourable terms to enable the Committee of the Sunday School Union to sell them at or £2; and owing to their low price cash must be paid for all Sales. There are still a few of the £3 libraries on hand.