Sparkles.

"WHAT'S that picture?" asked a visitor from the Wayback district of an attendant in an art gallery.

THE gay winter season exposes many to attacks of colds, coughs, hoarseness, tightness of the chest, asthma, bronchitis, etc., which require a reliable remedy like Haggard's Pectoral Balsam for their relief and cure.

SAID an Alabama mother: "Never would I call a son of mine 'Alias' if I had a hundred to name. Men by that name is allus cuttin' up capers.

DYSPEPSIA.—This disease may be traced to a variety of causes, such as constipation, liver troubles, improper food, etc.

A FRIEND in Need.—DR. WISLAK'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is a friend in deal. Who has not found it such in curing coughs and diseases of the lungs and throat?

SHE: Would you believe it?—that vicious little Mrs. Weston has taught her baby to call its father "grandpa."

JUST why so many people suffer pain when a remedy of known and certain effect like Haggard's Yellow Oil may be had at every drug store, is not very clear.

DEAR SIRS,—My mother was failing very fast after three months' suffering from dropsy, being swollen from head to foot, but after she had used one bottle of your Burdock Blood Bitters it was removed, and she felt quite well.

MRS. HAYSEED (in hotel dining-room): What a bright light those lamps give! Mr. Hayseed, whispering: Say gas-jets, Marier; them ain't lamps.

THE family store of medicine should contain a bottle of Haggard's Yellow Oil. Mrs. Hannah Hutchins, of Rossway, N.S. says: "We have used Haggard's Yellow Oil in our family for six years for coughs, colds, burns, sore throat, croup, etc., and find it so good we cannot do without it."

A Good Reputation.—Brown's BRONCHIAL TROCHES have been before the public many years, and are everywhere acknowledged to be the best remedy for all throat troubles.

Mrs. S. H. Elliott, Ridgefield, Conn., says: "I have never been without them for the last thirty years. Would as soon think of living without bread."

They quickly relieve Coughs, Sore Throat and Bronchial Affections. Price 25 cents. For sale everywhere, and only in boxes.

SON: Father, I want to drive to Blank's Corners this afternoon. Do you need the span? Father: My son, to get to Blank's Corners and back in time for supper will require very hard driving. I think it will be wiser to hire a livery horse.

SIRS,—Having used your Burdock Blood Bitters successfully for some time past, I must state that for my complaint of biliousness and acid stomach I have never found an equal, and I continue to use it and recommend it to my friends and neighbours.
