PARTNERSHIP WANTED.

A MEDICAL GENTLEMAN, residing in the District of St. Francis, being compelled, from ill health, to relinquish, for about a couple of years, his practice—will treat on the most favorable terms with any gentleman desirous of assuming his duties for that period, with the subsequent contingency of continued partnership or independent practice. The income is averaged between £400 and £500 per annum, of which three-fourths will appertain to the party who enters into the engagement. A married man, or one of thirty years of age or upwards, would be preferred.

Every information may be obtained by application to the Editor of this Journal.

As the Medical gentleman wishes to leave in January, and is desirous of introducing his partner to his practice, an application as early as possible is requested.
