JOHN PATON,
Treasurer.

Kingston, 20th January, 1858.

PEACE ON THE BATTLE-FIELD.

A SOLDIER lay wounded and dying after one of the battles in the Crimea. An officer who passed by compassionately stopped, and inquired if he could afford him any relief. "No, sir," said the poor fellow, "unless you would be so kind as take my Bible out of my pocket, and read in the 14th Chapter of John, at a verse near the end, which begins with; 'Peace I leave with you.'"
