Prosbytery of Ottawa. This Presbytery held an adjourned meeting in Ostawa on the 21st and 22nd March. The following items of business were trans-acted: -A call was sustained from the conacted:—A can was sustained from the congregation of Ross to the Roy. Henry Sinclair. The stipend gnaranteed by the congregation is $600, and the Presbytery agreed to apply to the Home Mission Committee for a supplement of $100. The congregations of Krox Church, Brokwith, and Ashton, were united as one pastoral charge and power to maderate in a call charge, and power to moderate in a call granted to the Moderator of the Sessions. The resignation of the Rev. R. Stevenson of the congregations of Admaston, Douglas of the congregations of Admaston, Douglas and Gratum, was accepted, to take effect on the 25th April, and the following minute expressing the teelings of the Presbytery thereasent adopted: The Presbytery having agreed to accept Mr. Stevenson's resignation of the pastoral charge of Admaston, Douglas and Grattin, desire to place on record their deep sense of his worth. During the five years he has laboured within the bounds of this Prestery, the relations existing between him tery, the relations existing between him and the other members of Presbytery have been always of the most traternal character, and he is highly esteemed as a zealous and faithful paster. The dissolution of the pasteral tie, when relationship has been so happy as in the present case, must always be accompanied with much pain to all parties, and so both Mr. Stevenson and the congregation have our sympathy in the circumstances. While deeply regretting the necessity of separation, the Presbytery assure Mr. Stevenson that he will carry with him the best wishes of all the brethren in the Presbytery, who carnestly hope that the Lord Jesus may, at an early day, direct him to a suitable field of labour. The Rev. H. J. Borthwick appeared before the Presbytery, and made a voluntary statement in reference to certain fregulariposition as Examiner of Public School Teachers, and expressed his sincere regret for the part he had therein taken. It was then moved by the Rev. D. M. Gordon, seconded by the Rev. A Mann, and carried unanimously, that the Presbytery having tears through the Rev. Rev. tery having heard from the Rev. Mr. Borthwick a voluntary expression of regret for irregularity in certain examinations conducted by him as an examiner of teachers for Public Schools, express its cordial satisfaction with the statement made by him to this court. Mr. Borthwick was appointed to supply the congregation of Hall for the ensuing six months, and Mr. Joseph White appointed to Rechesterville $5 an oldaned missionary, at a satary of $1000 per annum, a supplement of $100 to be asked for that station for the present year, and the remainder to be raised by the people themselves, with what outside assistance they can obtain. In this connection, the convention of the people this connection the congregations of Ottawa city were requested to give to the people of Rochesterville moral and pecuniary support. The Presbytery agreed to apply to the General Assembly for leave to put the names of the Rev. Joseph White and the Rev. Marc Ami upon the roll of these in full membership. The Carp and kindum were associated as mission stations for the summer months, and Mr. Robertson appointed to supply them, and it was results. pointed to supply them, and it was resolved that the services of a student mission. ary be secured for Richmond and Stitts-ville. It was agreed to get a quantity of circulars printed in regard to the Presbytery Fund, and that these be sent to congregations a month before the meetings in May and November, at which meetings the travelling exponses of members of Presbytery shall be paid. A committee was appointed to examine the Remit anent the Constitution of the General Assembly, and report atenext meeting.—J. Caswett., Pres. Clerk.

It is, in short, a vade mecum for Prosbyterians, and ought to be in the hands of all belonging to the ought to be in the hands of all belonging to the Church, especially its office-bearers."

The Ohristian Guardian, (Methodist, says:—
"This is a pamphlet of over 100 pages, giving a large amount of valuable information concerning the Presbyterian denomination of this country. Interesting papers are contributed by Dr. Kemp, on "Colleges for Young Ladies;" by Dr. Patterson on the "New Hebrides' Mission;" by Dr. Snodgrass, on "Queen's University and Colleges for "Ouen's University and Colleges for Ouen's University of Ouen's on "Queen's University and College," and "From Union to Union," by Roy. Robert Torrance. Additional to the information given respecting the several Prosbyterian sections which now form the unite i Chu-ch in the Deminion of Canada, valuable statistics are furnished of Presbyterian able statistics are furnished of Presbyterian, Churches in Great Britain and Ireland, in the United States, on the continent of Europe, in Anstralia etc. The chapter on "Union" is particularly readable; and, as the record of a memorable year in the history of Canadian Presbyterianism, the "Year Book" for 1876 will find a permanent place in the history of this country."
