From the Metropolitan:

The buildings of the above mentioned School, are excellent, and great pains have been taken to render the means of education effective. I wish that each Diocese had such an Institution.

From the Lord Bishop of Quebec:

I hope that those who have daughters to educate will, by a prompt support, secure for their children a sound and religious education, and for the country a permanence of the advantages which such an Institution offers.

A GUILTY CONSCIENCE.

A country parson, being in the City, cannot resist a visit to the theatre, although he is constantly inveighing from his own pulpit, against the wicked frivolity of such worldly pleasures. He is much discomfited by the boy in attendance, as he imagines his identity is discovered.
BOY:—This way up the middle aisle, Sir, please.

The source of many a writer's woe has been discovered."
