

service. The scale is as follows, beginning at the lowest step: Lance corporal, corporal, sergeant, company sergeant major, and battalion sergeant major, the last being the highest rank which a cadet can attain. Promotion is made to depend upon character and conduct, special qualifications and performance of ducers of the college in preserving discipline and instructing the junior cadets in their military duties, and to set a good example to the other cadets. They are invested with limited powers, and have allowed to them privileges in respect of leave, etc., which are proportioned to their rank. Badges are also given to mark proficiency in different subjects.

All the duties in the college form the subject of rules intended to secure order and preserve discipline. Attendance at divine service on each Sunday is compulsory, but each cadet may elect which denomination he will attend. Any cadet may, besides, attend the afternoon or evening services of his church. A change from one denomination to another is not permitted, unless authorized in orders, but the cadet must adhere to the denomination to which he represents himself to belong on first entering the college. Should a change be desired, it can be granted only on written ap-ties. Only those of the first or second class, that is, the two senior classes, are eligible for promotion to the permanent rank of sergeant, full corporal, or lance corporal; but acting rank may be given to a cadet from any class. Non-commissioned officers are required to perform certain duties assigned to them, to act with the offication and with the approval of the parent or guardian. In attending church, the cadets must be accompanied by the officer or cadet in charge, who must sit with them in the pew allotted to them. A reverent behaviour in church is strictly required. In the event of the weather being such as to preclude attendance
