

The March List.

OWING to the lamented death of Our Sovereign Lady, Queen Victoria, the March number of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE will be devoted, to some extent, to a review of her illustrious reign. Among the articles will be:

The Queen's Prime Ministers—Illustrated.

A. H. U. Colquhoun.

The Empire's Growth Under Victoria.

The Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Premier of Ontario.

The Queen—Illustrated.

When the Prince of Wales Visited Canada—Illustrated.

R. T. Lancefield, Hamilton Librarian.

The New King—Illustrated.

In addition, the March number will contain a liberal supply of miscellany, short stories, book reviews, etc. Among the articles there will be the following:

A Honeymoon in a Sailing Dinghy, being the account of a three weeks' trip through the Islands of Georgian Bay in a twelve-foot boat, taken by an adventuresome newly-married couple from Toronto. This will be profusely illustrated with drawings from photographs taken on the trip.

How a Census is Taken, by E. J. TOKER.

The Guardians of the Boy, Story by W. A. FRASER, being second last of series entitled "Mooswa."

Louis Frechette, by F. CLIFFORD SMITH, with Photographs. No. XXI. in series of Canadian Celebrities.

Wynifred Fraser, Story by HAROLD J. TEMPLE HILL.

Woman's Sphere, Current Events Abroad, People and Affairs, Book Reviews, Literary Notes, Idle Moments.
