

PARAGRAPHS.

THE RAW, CUTTING WINDS
Bring to the surface every latent pain. A change of even a few degrees marks the difference between comfort and pain to many persons. Happily disease now holds less sway. Science is continually bringing forward new remedies which successfully combat disease. Polson's Nerviline—nerve pain cure—has proved the most successful pain relieving remedy known. Its application is wide, for it is equally efficient in all forms of pain, whether internal or external. Ten and 25 cents a bottle, at druggists.

Kindness is the music of goodwill to men; and on the harp the sweetest fingers may play Heaven's sweetest tunes on earth.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing or using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block Rochester, N. Y. 25-13-eww

Give me the benefit of your convictions if you have any, but keep your doubts to yourself, for I have enough of my own.—Gothe.

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is, because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

The man who does not avoid small defects will by little and little fall into greater.

TO THE DEAF.

A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it free to any Person who applies to Nicholson, 177 McDougal street, New York.

To do wrong is to inflict the surest injury on our own peace.

Gents.—I sprained my leg so badly that I had to be driven home in a carriage. I immediately applied Minard's Liniment freely and in 48 hours could use my leg again as well as ever.

DO YOU SHARE THE RESULTS

Why not use other people's brains as well as your own in order to lessen life's work, and especially so when the coming hot weather will make life a burden to those who have to do laborious house work? The very word "Pearline" sounds clean and sweet enough to recommend even a poorer article. But "Pearline" does as clean and as sweet work as its name implies. Now if there be a housekeeper among the thousands of Witness readers who has hitherto lived so far beneath her privileges as not to have used "Pearline," surely she will at once purchase a packet and test what it will do for her. "Pearline" represents brains. That is, it is the product of long and hard processes of thought, investigation and experiment. You are invited to share the results.—From New York Witness, June 12th, 1889.

The sublimity of wisdom is to do those things living which are to be desired when dying.

W. Mailman, of Ohio, merchant, says: "When customers come in who can't remember the name of Minard's Liniment, they ask for medicine we can't do without, or the rheumatism killer. No family will be without it after one trial."

Rector St. Paul's, Portland, Me.

Neatly bound in Cloth, 282 pages, Price $1.10 by mail.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, that once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
