

to-morrow."

"Perhaps," said Mike, "perhaps, Pat, you are going to make a new house for Ted's rabbits; that would be nice of you."

Old Pat had no such idea; he had in truth taken the hutch away by Uncle Edward's desire, in order to give it a good cleaning, as Mike's uncle feared some infection might linger where the shawl had so long been, and the old man had been requested not to acquaint the child with this reason.

He was considerably puzzled how to satisfy the inquisitive little fellow, and saw at a glance the advantage his speech had given him.

"And how big will I be after making it, Masther Mike, acush'a machree?"

"O Pat! can you set to work at once, and can you have it ready for Sunday? Ted will be out again on Sunday, Pat."

And soon the boy and the man were deep in the discussion of Ted's new hutch.

RUSSELL SAGE TO BOYS.

The boy who is wanted in the business world of to-day must be educated, says Russell Sage in an admirable article on "The Boy That Is Wanted," in the November Ladies' Home Journal. If his parents cannot afford to give him a high-school or college education, he must learn to study without the aid of a teacher, in the early morning before business begins, and in the evenings after business hours. It can no longer be truthfully said that an education is out of any one's reach. Our splendid school system, where one can study by day or in the evening, has put the priceless treasure of an education within the reach of all. The main thing, in the beginning, that I would impress upon boys is one of the great commandments, "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." The boys who respects his father and mother, who treats his sisters and brothers with loving kindness, has laid a good foundation for a successful career. You will do as your parents tell you, and that certainly will be to study. Don't be in a hurry to get away from your school books. The cares and responsibilities of business life will come soon enough. Go to school as long as you can, and, remember, every hour spent in study in your youth will be worth money to you in after life. Read good books—the Bible above all. Make yourself acquainted with history. Study the progress of nations and the careers of men who have made nations great. If you have no library of your own, join one of the numerous associations to be found in all cities, where good, healthful books may be obtained. Study religion, science, statecraft, and history. Learn to read intelligently, so that you may turn to practical use in after life the readings of your youth. Be sure you begin right. Do not waste time in reading trashy books.

THE PRAYER BOOK REASON WHY.

A Text Book of Instructions on the Doctrines, Usages and History of the Church as suggested by the Liturgy. By the Rev. Nelson R. Boss, M.A., 16 mo, stiff paper covers, 20c. net. Same publisher.

The design of the work is threefold: (1) To furnish concise and ready answers to the popular objections so commonly raised against the Church and her services by those not familiar with her ways; (2) To bring out clearly and concisely some of the principles of historic Christianity which distinguish the Episcopal Church from all other religious bodies; and (3) To convey in the briefest space, information on the history, doctrines and usages of the Church which every layman, and especially every teacher ought to have.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND TEACHING.

By the Very Rev. Jas. Carmichael, D. C. L., Dean of Montreal. Paper 10c. Drysdale & Co., Montreal.

The Tract was written to meet the need of the many persons drifting into the Church from other Christian bodies, without a clear realization of the great landmarks of Her distinctive teaching. It condenses into a small and readable space what every one professing to belong to the Church of England should naturally realize and understand.

THE APPOINTED GUIDE.
