"POINTED" PICTURES.—There is much expression in the cartoons accompanying the last issue of our pet comic paper, Grip. The principal cut represents the Governor-General as acting Coachman for Miss Canada, who is surrounded in her carriage (Constitution) by a lot of children, representing the different provinces of the Dominion. The horse has a head, the "frontispiece" of which is not unlike Sir John's, and the coachman, having flung the lines over the animal's back, Miss Canada remarks: "It may be a good safe horse, as you say, but still, I don't like to be left at his mercy." Messrs. Joly (who has taken too much Tarte), Beaconsfield, Lieut. Governors Cauchon, Macdonald, and Mr. P. Boyle come in for notice.—Kingston Whig.

PRESS OPINIONS.

Gris of last week has a sery dever cartoon entitled "New idea of Confederation," liastrated by a merry-goround, Sir-John turning the crank of the machine, the horses representing the several Provinces, being ridden by the Lieut. Governors. The ex-Lieut Governor Letellier has been unhorsed by Dr. Robitaille, who bears under his arm a scroll reading "Any Lieut-Governor who is not in accord with the "Federal power—off he goes," white the words "no provincial autocomy," are displayed on the sign-board of the machine. The black cartoon, "or the rejocing of the Quebec Zulus over Letellier's dismissal," is exceedingly well done; the livenesses of Messets. Chapleau, Monsseau, Langevin and Augers, appear as engaged in a victorious war dance over the event. Gris is only $a year, and is well worth the money.—Sherbrooke (P.Q.) Examiner.

Examiner:

Gris, of Saturday last, contains two very expressive cartoons illustrative of the Letellier dismissel. One represents "the new idea" of Confederation." Sir John, the great thimbleringer of Canadian politics, is represented turning by a crank the "Federal power" post, while from cross beams labelled "No Provincial autonomy" are suspended the Provincial horses mounted by the Lieutoniant Governors of the various Provinces. Sir John, with his "Federal power" crank is giving them a merry race round the ring. Letellier has, it appears been unseated by Robitnille, and lies sprawling on the outside of the ring. Robitnille, who has mounted the Quebec horse, carriers a placard labelled.—"Any Lieutenant Governor who is not in accord with the Federal power—off he goes." The other cartoon, a very expressive one, represents Chapleau, Angers, Mousseau and Langevin disguised as Zulus, dancing a war dance and giving uttennace to fiendish yells of delight over the dismissal of Letellier.—Town (N. S.) Guardian.
