The following corps has been authorized to be raised in Manitoba and North-West Territories for actual service :—

"Moose Mountain Scouts," (50 strong) Captain George W. R. White, Lieutenant F. L. Oslee.

FROM ORDERS OF 15TH MAY.

NO. 1—ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE OF CANADA.

Additional Commissions in Her Majesty's Army.

In addition to the four commissions :—One in the Royal Engineers, one in the Royal Artillery, one in the Cavalry, and one in the Infantry of the Line,—granted annually by the Imperial Government to graduates of the Royal Military College of Canada, the Imperial Government proposes to grant, for this year, twenty-six further commissions, viz :—Six in the Royal Artillery, ten in the Royal Engineers and ten in the Cavalry and Infantry making a total of thirty commissions for this year.

All graduates are eligible for the additional commissions, if complying with the following regulations :—

- (a) Applications are to be made through the commandant of the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ont., and if received by that officer before the 15th June next, will be taken into consideration.
- (b) Applicants must not be over twenty-two years of age on 1st January, 1885, and must not be married.
- (c) Applicants to specify their preference for Royal Engineers, Royal Artillery, Cavalry or Infantry, by figures 1, 2, 3, 4, and the word "no" to any branch of the service in which they do not desire commissions.
- (d) Recommendations for commissions in the various branches of service will be made entirely according to qualifications for those corps, without reference to date of graduation.
- (e) Of applicants recommended for commissions in any particular corps, the seniority in that corps will be determined according to date and position of graduation.

NO. 2—Major-General Thomas Bland Strange, late an inspector of artillery of the Dominion of Canada, has been appointed temporarily to the rank of colonel in the Militia, from 27th April, 1885, during the period that the Active Militia now in the North-west Territories is on actual service.

NO. 3—MILITIA ON ACTUAL SERVICE IN THE NORTH-WEST.

Assignment of pay by officers and men to their wives and families.

Applications for assignment of pay by officers, non-commissioned officers and men on active service in the North-west Territories to their wives and families must bear the signature of the individual wishing to make the assignment, the number of days pay per month assigned, and the name in full of the person to whom the assignment is made.

Regimental assignment lists so prepared, certified to by the Lt.-Colonel commanding, by the captains of companies, and countersigned by the regimental paymaster that the amounts of pay so assigned shall not be included in any pay-list, except the "assignment pay-list," will receive the attention of the Minister of Militia and Defence, who at his discretion will issue the necessary order to meet the wishes of the officers and men concerned.

These lists of assigned pay must be transmitted by the officer commanding in quadruplicate, as follows :—One copy to the principal supply and pay officer in the North-west Territories, one copy to the brigade or divisional paymaster of the field force to which the corps may be attached, one copy to the Minister of Militia and Defence (Account Branch), Ottawa, and one copy to the paymaster of the military district to which the corps belongs.

Each captain of a company shall retain a copy of his company "assignment pay-list," and each regimental paymaster shall keep the regimental list of "assigned pay" on file in his office.

The monthly regimental pay-lists must show the name of every officer and man, with the pay due him for every day he has served during the month, and in the column of stoppages must be shown the amount of "assigned pay" to be deducted; and in the column of remarks the number of days assigned pay deducted must be stated.
